Bimonthly update to the Texas Medicaid Provider Procedures Manual

MAY/JUNE 2010

NO. 229

CONTENTS

Provider Enrollment on the Portal (PEP) Enhancements

The following enhancements to Provider Enrollment on the Portal (PEP) will implement on May 3, 2010:

- Providers can create templates, which make it easier to submit multiple enrollment applications.
- Providers who enroll as a group can assign portions of the application to performing providers to complete. Performing providers can complete their portion of a group application by logging into PEP with their unique user name and password.
- Providers can navigate to completed sections of the application without having to click through all pages of the application.
- Information that is on file for owners and subcontractors of the applying provider are auto-populated in the application.
- Before submitting an application to TMHP for processing, providers are required to review a portable document format (PDF) copy of the application and verify it is complete.

Providers are able to edit submitted applications to correct identified deficiencies. ■
