Volume 11 the sixth of the historical volumes of A Treatise of Legal Philosophy and General Jurisprudence offers a fresh philosophically engaged critical interpretation of the main currents of jurisprudential thought in the English speaking world of the 20th century It tells the tale of two lectures and their legacies Oliver Wendell Holmes Jr s The Path of Law 1897 and H L A Hart s Holmes Lecture Positivism and the Separation of Law and Morals 1958 Holmes s radical challenge to late 19th century legal science gave birth to a rich variety of competing approaches to understanding law and legal reasoning from realism to economic jurisprudence to legal pragmatism from recovery of key elements of common law jurisprudence and rule of law doctrine in the work of Llewellyn Fuller and Hayek to root and branch attacks on the ideology of law by the Critical Legal Studies and Feminist movements Hart simultaneously building upon and transforming the undations of Austinian analytic jurisprudence laid in the early 20th century introduced rigorous philosophical method to English speaking jurisprudence and offered a reinterpretation of legal positivism which set the agenda for analytic legal philosophy to the end of the century and beyond A wide ranging debate over the role of moral principles in legal reasoning sparked by Dworkin s fundamental challenge to Hart s theory generated competing interpretations of and fundamental challenges to core doctrines of Hart s positivism including the nature and role of conventions at the foundations of law and the methodology of philosophical jurisprudence

The Invention of the Inspired Text John C. Poirier,2021-01-28 John C Poirier examines the theopneustic nature of the Scripture as a response to the view that inspiration lies at the heart of most contemporary Christian theology In contrast to the traditional rendering of the Greek word theopneustos as God inspired in 2 Tim 3 16 Poirier argues that a close look at first and second century uses of theopneustos reveals that the traditional inspirationist understanding of the term did not arise until the time of Origen in the early third century CE and that in every pre Origen use of theopneustos the word instead means life giving Poirier thus conducts a detailed investigation of theopneustos as it appears in the fifth Sibylline Oracle the Testament of Abraham Vettius Valens Pseudo Plutarch Placita Philosophorum and Pseudo Phocylides all of whom understand the word to mean life giving He also studies the use of the cognate term theopnous in Numenius the Corpus Hermeticum on an inscription at the Great Sphinx of Giza and on an inscription at a nymphaeum at Laodicea on the Lycus Poirier argues that a rendering of life giving also fits better within the context of 2 Tim 3 16 and that this meaning survived late enough to figure in a fifth century work by Nonnus of Panopolis He further traces the pre Origen use of theopneustos among the Church Fathers Poirier concludes by addressing the implication of rethinking the traditional understanding of Scripture stressing that the lack of God inspired scripture ultimately does not affect the truth status of the gospel as preached by the apostles
