Supporting Reading Grades 6-12: A Guide addresses head on the disturbing trend of declining leisure reading among students and demonstrates how school librarians can contribute to the development of lifelong reading habits as well as improve students motivation and test scores. The book provides a comprehensive framework for achieving this: the READS curriculum which stands for Read as a personal activity, Explore characteristics, history and awards of creative works, Analyze structure and aesthetic features of creative works, Develop a literary based product, and Score reading progress. Each of these five components is explained thoroughly describing how school librarians can encourage students to read as individuals in groups and as school communities support classroom teachers instruction and connect students to today's constantly evolving technologies. Used in combination with an inquiry information skills model the READS curriculum enables school librarians to deliver a dynamic, balanced library program that addresses AASL's Standards for the 21st Century Learner.

Wright Westminster John Knox is pleased to announce the first volumes in the all new Old Testament for Everyone Bible commentary series. John Goldingay, an internationally respected Old Testament scholar, authors this ambitious series treating every passage of Scripture from Genesis to Malachi, addressing the texts in such a way that even the most challenging passages are explained simply and concisely. Perfect for daily devotions, Sunday school prep, or brief visits with the Bible, the Old Testament for Everyone series is an excellent resource for the modern lay reader. The book of Genesis is a lively read featuring familiar biblical tales such as the creation of the world, Adam and Eve and the forbidden fruit, Noah and the flood, Abraham and Isaac, Jacob and Joseph, the Tower of Babel, and Sodom and Gomorrah. While readers may know the facts of these stories, Goldingay's work will instill in them a deeper understanding of their spiritual and theological significance. True to the For Everyone series goal, Goldingay writes in a thoroughly accessible and engaging style with chapter titles such as Friday Lunchtime, Bigamy, Music, Technology, Murder, Babylon becomes Babble, on Stuff Happens, and Two Guys Who Need Their Heads Banged Together.

Reconceptualizing Curriculum, Literacy, and Learning for School-Age Mothers Heidi Hallman, Abigail Kindelsperger, 2018-10-09 Reconceptualizing Curriculum, Literacy, and Learning for School Age Mothers offers a portrait of classroom literacy practices and learning opportunities that are provided for school age mothers in two different schools. Through a series of case studies of school sites, teachers and students, this book presents evidence of how these at-risk students use literacy in complex ways in the classroom and in their everyday lives. Attuned to the struggle for school age mothers' access to meaningful and challenging curriculum in public schools, as well as to the relative dearth of scholarly research on the topic, this volume demonstrates how educators can rethink the issue of schooling for this population of students.
