Critical Readings on Global Slavery offers students and researchers a rich collection of previously published works by some of the most preeminent scholars in the field. Each of the book's chapters represents a review of the law of a particular period and region, e.g., the Egyptian Old Kingdom, by a specialist in that area. Within each chapter, the material is organized under standardized legal categories, e.g., constitutional law, family law, that make for easy cross-referencing. The chapters are arranged chronologically by millennium and within each millennium by the three major politico-cultural spheres of the region: Egypt, Mesopotamia, and Anatolia, and the Levant. An introduction by the editor discusses the general character of Ancient Near Eastern Law. The
