Practice in Context Claire Holden, Eric F. Clarke, Cayenna Rosa Ponchione, 2025

Many of the best-known and most regularly performed works of the Western Classical Music canon were written in the nineteenth century. Although this repertoire is loved by audiences and performers, nineteenth-century historical performance style is rarely heard today, even when performances are given by professional period instrument performers and specialist conductors. Practice in Context brings together scholars and performer-scholars who are interested in how historical research can contribute to greater understanding of the musical priorities and artistic decision-making processes when performing nineteenth-century pieces.
