Documentary and Verbatim Theatre Stuart Young, 2025-12-12 Documentary and Verbatim Theatre surveys the emergence and rise of work based on real life in contemporary theatre exploring the artists methodologies plays and central themes that have characterised its enduring popularity After charting the recent history of modern documentary theatre in the twentieth century and the debates that have surrounded it in the past thirty years each chapter examines in depth key practices such as headphone verbatim and extreme verbatim and practitioners from Anna Deavere Smith and David Hare to The Civilians and DV8 Physical Theatre Practitioners chosen topics playwriting process and engagement with sometimes fraught debates in the field are brought to the fore Focusing on the various dramaturgical and theatrical strategies used to create and stage documentary theatre this book provides a practice centric understanding of some of the principal issues related to the form including the tensions between fidelity to the documentary or verbatim record and the exercise of artistic licence the ethical issues entailed in representing living people the implications for actors and our understanding of acting and our assumptions about aesthetic distancing This is an essential introduction to documentary and verbatim theatre for theatre studies students teachers and scholars as well as theatre practitioners

Performing the testimonial Amanda Stuart Fisher, 2020-08-04 Providing one of the first critically sustained engagements with the new forms of verbatim and testimonial theatre that emerged in the late 1990s and early 2000s this book examines what distinguishes verbatim theatre from the more established documentary theatre traditions developed initially by Peter Weiss Bertolt Brecht and Erwin Piscator Examining a wide range of verbatim and testimonial plays from around the world this book looks beyond the discourses of the real that have tended to dominate scholarship in this area and instead argues that this kind of theatre engages in acts of truth telling Through its analysis of a range of international plays from UK Germany America Australia and South Africa the book explores theatre's dramaturgical interrogation of testimony and how the act of witnessing itself is reconfigured when relocated outside of the psychoanalytic frame and positioned as contributing to a decolonisation of testimony

different types of art within the political arena Challenging issues in contemporary aesthetics are examined within the wider framework of current debates on the disappearance of the real the crisis in representation and the use of new media The wide range of examples collected here stretching from experimental poetry in post war Germany political commitment in twentieth century French theatre and countercultural Rumanian theatre under Ceau escu to Neo Victorian fiction Verbatim theatre in the UK and political theatre for the masses in Estonia vouchsafe unique insights into the intersection of aesthetics and ideology and the practical consequences thereof As such the volume opens up a space for a meaningful engagement with authentic forms of art from inside and outside the Anglosphere and ultimately uses these examples as a platform from which to imagine some form of aesthetics representing an ideal union of aesthetics and ideology This concept first coined by the French philosopher Philippe Lacoue Labarthe will prove to be relevant both within the parameters of the examples discussed here but also beyond for the contributors to this volume are unanimous in refusing to believe that aesthetics and ideology can exist one without the other and in recognizing the centrality of ethics in any discussion of these notions A Concise
