Tan Siak Kew Going Against The Grain:

Tan Siak Kew Fiona Tan (Independent writer), S. R. Nathan, 2014 A scholar by inclination a businessman by necessity a diplomat by duty those were the apt words chosen by a reporter in 1966 to describe Tan Siak Kew and his multi dimensional public life He was a fervent supporter of education President of the Chinese Chamber of Commerce for multiple terms Chairman of the Nanyang University Council Singapore's first ambassador to Thailand nominated member of the Legislative Assembly community leader of the Teochews and notable philanthropist Effectively bilingual and conscious of his responsibility to both his community and the new nation which was about to be born Tan was able to act as the bridge between the Chinese speaking and English speaking communities with his tact and non partisan position Tan Siak Kew Going Against the Grain is a biographical sketch of this under appreciated pioneer telling the story of his public life through historical records and discussions with his contemporaries Southeast Asia in China Ying-kit Chan, Chang-Yau Hoon, 2022-11-28 As part of China's south Southeast Asia has historically assumed a peripheral position when juxtaposed against the power of the Chinese state In the existing scholarly literature the power asymmetry is reflected in the ostensible bias where most studies are about China's presence in or engagement with Southeast Asia rather than the reverse studies on the presence or influence of Southeast Asia in China have been a marginal enterprise The present volume aims to fill this void by exploring the historical entanglements and contemporary engagements of Southeast Asians in China through a Southeast Asian perspective As China seeks to understand Southeast Asia's presence in the country on its own terms it is also engaged in a process of self discovery and defining where and how it should stand in relation to the region Departing from the discourse of China as the a priori center dominating the scholarship on China Southeast Asia relations the present volume hopes to subvert such power relations in order to bring fresh perspectives on the historical and contemporary contributions of Southeast Asians in China Asian Recorder , 1966 Going Against the Grain Shirley Hazzard, 1992
