

TIPS ON ANSWERING QUESTIONS THAT REQUIRE YOU TO EVALUATE USEFULNESS

Do	Don't
▶ Infer on what the source tells you about the topic stated in the question. ▶ Remember that every source has its usefulness. ▶ Check the reliability of the source. This can be done through CR or CAP. ▶ Link back to the question of usefulness if you are checking the reliability of the source. Example If what Source A says is supported by Source B, then Source A is reliable, and hence useful.	▶ Simply copy information from or paraphrase the source ▶ Simply dismiss the source as unreliable or biased. ▶ Simply end the paragraph on checking reliability with "Thus Source A is reliable" without linking back to the usefulness of the source.

Educational Assessment in Tanzania Joyce Kahembe,Liz Jackson,2020-11-04 This book examines teachers conceptions and practices of assessment in Tanzania Adopting a sociocultural perspective it reveals how Tanzanian teachers understand the role of assessment in relation to their classroom practices community and other factors The book determines that although teachers in Tanzania generally consider assessment to be useful for evaluating and monitoring learning improving student performance and for accountability their assessment practices are rarely seen as directly supporting student learning it is not that teachers do not know how to implement the mandated assessment reforms Instead they are reluctant to adopt and embrace the reforms because they consider them to be contradictory to their teaching roles and overly burdensome if not implausible given the physical economic and cultural contexts of teaching and learning This book argues that improving traditional assessments rather than radically transforming them can be more effective for cultivating practices that suit the physical political economic and cultural contexts of Tanzanian schools Highlighting the significance of sociocultural factors in educators professional practices while also illustrating the major challenges in implementing global reform agendas in diverse contexts it is a valuable resource for educators and scholars interested in development and educational reform in African contexts
