Tavernier Un Dimanche Campagne:

French Cinema in the 1980s Phil Powrie, 1997 French film in the 1980s might have lacked the invention of the New Wave but gritty police thrillers and nostalgic costume dramas such as Jean de Florette and Manon des Sources brought French cinema to a wider audience than ever before This landmark study is not merely a history of French film in the 1980s but offers a set of critical essays on the crisis of masculinity in contemporary French culture and its interrelationship with nostalgia After a brief overview both of the crisis in the French film industry during the 1980s and of the socio political crisis of masculinity in the wake of 1970s feminism the book is divided into three sections the retro nostalgic film the Polar or police thriller and the comic film Films studied in detail include Diva Subway Coup de foudre Vivement dimanche La Vie est un long fleuve tranquille and Tenue de soir e while the volume covers actors from Gérard Depardieu Daniel Auteuil and Yves Montand to Isabelle Adjani Isabelle Huppert and Emmanuelle Béart

Jean-Jacques Beineix Philip Powrie, 2019-01-18 This volume is the first to examine in either French or English the films of Jean Jacques Beineix often seen as the best example of the 1980s cinéma du look with cult films such as Diva and Betty Blue 370 2 le matin After an introduction which places Beineix in the context of the 1980s and the arguments centering on a postmodern cinema the volume devotes a chapter to each of Beineix's feature films including the film which marked his return to feature film making after a break of a decade Mortel Transfert 2001 Prefaced by an excellent foreword by the director himself which includes a broad condemnation of French critics Includes many illustrations direct from the director's own collection complementing the interviews Powrie made with him and his collaborators

Contemporary French cinema Guy Austin, 2021-06-15 Contemporary French cinema is an essential introduction to popular French film of the last 35 years It charts recent developments in all genres of French cinema with analyses of over 120 movies from Les Valseuses to Caché Reflecting the diversity of French film production since the New Wave this clear and perceptive study includes chapters on the heritage film the thriller and the war movie alongside the cinéma du look representations of sexuality comedies the work of women film makers and le jeune cinéma Each chapter introduces the public reception and critical debates surrounding a given genre interwoven with detailed accounts of relevant films Confirmed as a major contribution to both Film Studies and French Studies this book is a fascinating volume for students and fans of French film alike

La Reine Margot Julianne Pidduck, 2005 Julianne Pidduck's Cine File does justice to this film examining it as part of an influential recent cycle of French historical super productions including Cyrano de Bergerac and Germinal and exploring its social and political contexts in particular how La Reine Margot's depiction of Renaissance religious intolerance offers a haunting allegory for twentieth century French and European experience Jacket

Hargreaves, 2005-09-08 Long repressed following the collapse of empire memories of the French colonial experience have recently gained unprecedented visibility In popular culture scholarly research personal memoirs public commemorations and new ethnicities associated with the settlement of postcolonial immigrant minorities the legacy of colonialism is now more apparent in France than at any time in the past How is this upsurge of interest in the colonial past to be explained Does the commemoration of empire necessarily imply glorification or condemnation To what extent have previously marginalized voices succeeded in making themselves heard in new narratives of empire While veils of secrecy have been lifted what taboos still remain and why These are among the questions addressed by an international team of leading researchers in this interdisciplinary volume which will interest scholars in a wide range of disciplines including French studies history literature cultural studies and anthropology Memory, Empire, and Postcolonialism Alec G. Hargreaves, 2005-01-01 Long repressed following the collapse of empire memories of the French colonial experience have recently gained unprecedented visibility This interdisciplinary volume explores the multiple forms of this upsurge and the forces driving it in popular culture scholarly research and public commemorations Music in Contemporary French Cinema Phil Powrie, 2017-06-29 This book explores composed scores and pre-existing music in French cinema from 1985 to 2015 so as to identify critical musical moments It shows how heritage films construct space through music generating what Powrie calls third space music while also working to contain the strong women characters found in French heritage films through the use of leitmotifs and musical cues He analyses fiction films in which the protagonists perform at the piano showing how musical performance supports the performance of gender Building on aspects of musical performance and in particular the use of songs performed in films Powrie uses a database of 300 films since 2010 to theorize the intervention of music at critical moments as a crystal song Applying Roland Barthes's concept of the punctum and Gilles Deleuze's concept of the crystal image Powrie establishes the importance of the crystal song which reconfigures time as a crystallization of past present and future A Companion to the Gangster Film George S. Larke-Walsh, 2018-11-12 A companion to the study of the gangster film's international appeal spanning the Americas Europe and Asia A Companion to the Gangster Film presents a comprehensive overview of the newest scholarship on the contemporary gangster film genre as a global phenomenon While gangster films are one of America's most popular genres gangster movies appear in every film industry across the world With contributions from an international panel of experts A Companion to the Gangster Film explores the popularity of gangster films across three major continents the Americas Europe and Asia The authors acknowledge the gangster genre's popularity and examine the reasons supporting its appeal to twenty first century audiences across the globe The book examines common themes across all three continents such as production histories and reception gender race and sexuality mafia mythologies and politics In addition the companion clearly shows that no national cinema develops in isolation and that cinema is a truly global popular art form This important guide to the gangster film genre Reveals how the gangster film engages in complex and contradictory themes Examines the changing face of the gangster film in America Explores the ideas of gangsterism and migration in the Hispanic USA Latin America and the Caribbean Discusses the wide variety of gangster types to appear in European cinema Contains a review of a wide range of gangster films from the Americans Europe and Asia Written for academics and students of film A Companion to the Gangster Film offers a scholarly and authoritative guide exploring the various aspects and international appeal of the gangster film genre

Yugoslav News Bulletin ,1985 Past Forward Dayna Oscherwitz,2010-09-15 In Past Forward French Cinema and the Post Colonial Heritage author Dayna Oscherwitz focuses on the world of French films with a new lens Drawing upon a wealth of research and the examination of popular French movies Oscherwitz offers fresh perspectives not only on the unique importance of motion pictures and their indelible influence on French character but on current debates regarding individual and collective memory Past Forward traces the development and ascension of the French heritage film those historical and costume dramas focusing on prestigious French subjects events and settings These motion pictures preeminent during a period of globalization and fear over the affects of immigration in 1980s France quickly came to embody a specific version of French national and collective identity one that idealized the past condemned the present and created an institutional form of memory Oscherwitz presents the intriguing notion that French heritage films are not exclusively expressions of nationalism and nostalgia as has commonly been asserted On the contrary although these movies were born out of a perceived loss of French culture their ambivalence toward traditional hallmarks of nationalism opens them up to new interpretation Also in contrast to typical conceptions the author suggests that these heritage films are far from cinematic bastions of multicultural backlash instead she argues popular culture has in its own fashion reinserted the history of colonialism and immigration into the national past thus reimagining heritage itself Against this backdrop Oscherwitz goes on to investigate the multicultural worlds of beur and banlieue movies cinema seemingly in direct contrast with the heritage film offering the theory that these films serve as a countermemory to an institutionalized one and provide alternative models of collective memory and identity Through careful analysis of several examples Oscherwitz demonstrates how these two seemingly different realms heritage and multicultural cinema are far from mutually exclusive in the construction of French identity Throughout the volume numerous well known French movies are reexamined inviting new interpretations of and challenging old views through investigations of familiar cinematic works Past Forward is arevolutionary volume that boldly reimagines our ideas about French film and its role in communicating history and memory

Paratexts Gerard Genette, 1997-03-13 Paratexts are those liminal devices and conventions both within and outside the book that form part of the complex mediation between book author publisher and reader titles forewords epigraphs and publishers jacket copy are part of a book's private and public history In this first English translation of Paratexts Gerard Genette shows how the special pragmatic status of paratextual declaration requires a carefully calibrated analysis of their illocutionary force With clarity precision and an extraordinary range of reference Paratexts constitutes an encyclopedic survey of the customs and institutions as revealed in the borderlands of the text Genette presents a global view of these liminal mediations and the logic of their relation to the reading public by studying each element as a literary function Richard Macksey's foreword describes how the poetics of paratexts interact with more general questions of literature as a cultural institution and situates Genette's work in contemporary literary theory French XX Bibliography Douglas W.

Literature, 1985 Hollywood's Indies Yannis Tzioumakis, 2012-03-07 For almost three decades the big Hollywood studios have operated classics divisions or specialty labels subsidiaries that originally focused on the foreign art house film market while more recently and controversially moving on to the American indie film market This is the first book to offer an in depth examination of the phenomenon of the classics divisions by tracing its history since the establishment the first specialty label in 1980 United Artists Classics to more contemporary outfits like Focus Features Warner Independent and Picturehouse This detailed account of all classics divisions examines their business practices their position within the often labyrinthine structure of contemporary entertainment conglomerates and their relationship to their parent companies Yannis Tzioumakis examines the impact of those companies on American indie cinema and argues that it was companies such as Fox Searchlight and Paramount Classics now Paramount Vantage that turned independent filmmaking to an industrial category endorsed by the Hollywood majors as opposed to a mode of filmmaking practised outside the conglomerated major players and posed as a sustained alternative to mainstream Hollywood cinema A number of case studies are provided including such celebrated films as Mystery Train The Brothers McMullen Broken Flowers Before Sunset and many others Movie Lists Paul Simpson, 2011-05-26 Action African greats alcohol Robert Aldrich aliens Woody Allen Pedro Almodovar Robert Altman animated anime apocalypses Argentina art Asia minor avant garde And that's just A for you A taste of this fabulously quirky and enjoyable book which is both a celebration of movies and movie trivia and a handy entertaining guide to films that we know you will enjoy. It is fantastically functional. The lists are well conceived and easy to understand, mostly assembled by genre, actor, director, theme or country of origin, and the reviews are witty and informative. Oddly enough, most movie guides are not full of recommendations. But Movie Lists is in spades, leaving readers in no doubt that the films reviewed are the business. Oh, and you don't have to watch them all before you die. There is no premise of death in this book. You just need to get down to the local Blockbusters or flick your remote to Movies on Demand. Only the popcorn is not supplied.

Representing Jazz Krin Gabbard, 1995. Traditional jazz studies have tended to see jazz in purely musical terms as a series of changes in rhythm, tonality and harmony or as a parade of great players. But jazz has also entered the cultural mix through its significant impact on novelists, filmmakers, dancers, painters, biographers and photographers. Representing Jazz explores the other history of jazz created by these artists, a history that tells us as much about the meaning of the music as do the many books that narrate the lives of musicians or describe their recordings. Krin Gabbard has gathered essays by distinguished writers from a variety of fields. They provide engaging analyses of films such as Round Midnight, Bird, Mo' Better Blues, Cabin in the Sky and Jammin' the Blues, the writings of Eudora Welty and Dorothy Baker, the careers of the great lindy hoppers of the 1930s and 1940s, Mura Dehn's extraordinary documentary on jazz dance, the jazz photography of William Claxton, painters of the New York School, the traditions of jazz autobiography and the art of vocalese. The contributors to this volume assess the influence of extramusical sources on our knowledge of jazz and suggest that the living contexts of the music must be considered if a more sophisticated jazz scholarship is ever to evolve. Transcending the familiar patterns of jazz history and criticism, Representing Jazz looks at how the music actually has been heard and felt at different levels of American culture. With its companion anthology Jazz Among the Discourses, this volume will enrich and transform the literature of jazz studies. Its provocative essays will interest both aficionados and potential jazz fans. Contributors: Karen Backstein, Leland H. Chambers, Robert P. Crease, Krin Gabbard, Frederick Garber, Barry K. Grant, Mona Hadler, Christopher Harlos, Michael Jarrett, Adam Knee, Arthur Knight, James Naremore. Talking Movies Jason Wood, 2006. Talking Movies is a collection of interviews with some of the most audacious and respected contemporary filmmakers of the present generation.

Approche linguistique des problèmes de traduction anglais-français Hélène Chuquet, Michel Paillard, 1987. L'objectif de cet ouvrage est d'établir le lien entre la pratique intuitive de la traduction et la formation linguistique acquise par ailleurs, de développer ainsi la vigilance, le regard des problèmes de traduction et l'aptitude à voir les solutions possibles. Il se divise en deux parties complémentaires: une initiation à l'ensemble des problèmes de traduction récurrents entre l'anglais et le français au niveau grammatical, syntaxique, lexical; un corpus diversifié de trente textes contemporains tous accompagnés de leur traduction et d'un commentaire détaillé. D'abord destinée aux étudiants d'anglais, l'ouvrage s'adresse plus largement, quiconque s'intéresse aux rapports entre l'anglais et le français.
