humour Gothataone Moeng's first collection set between the rural village of Serowe and the thrumming capital city of Gaborone captures a chorus of voices from a country in flux. Meet a young woman who has worn the same mourning clothes for almost a year and a teenage girl who shies away from the room where her once vibrant aunt lies dying. Elsewhere watch as a younger sister hides her romantic exploits from her family while her older brother openly flaunts his infidelities and a traveller returns home laden with confusion and shame. Moeng part of a new generation of writers coming out of Africa whose work is exploding onto the literary scene offers us an insight into communities, experiences and landscapes through these cinematic stories peopled with unforgettable female protagonists. A good short story is a bit of alchemy showing us so much in so few pages. Gothataone Moeng's debut collection does this over and over. To My Future... Shajuana Franklin, 2022-08-25. To My Future is a book of short stories that everyone can relate to. The story My Firstborn Janese is of a mother who is pouring out her love for her child. This story will make you have tears in your eyes and tug some strings in your heart. It does not matter if you are woman, man, who is considering becoming a first time parent. When you start thinking about the feeling you will relate. Even if you are married or dating or is going through a hiccup in your relationship. To My Future will captivate your mind and hearts as you read through the stories. Whether you messed up in your relationship or are even starting a new one, this book will give you comfort and love as well as make you think before you react to any situation. It will help you build up the courage to act for the man, woman you are falling in love with. You will not be disappointed after opening the book. I promise you it will draw you to each story. To My Future would have a man, woman who is seeking to marry, say something like this: "You were brought into my life as a blessing. I am forever grateful to have you and forever grateful to spend the rest of my life with you. As your new husband/wife, I will cherish you as my husband/wife and lover. You are my forever love for all eternity. I am so glad you're my wife/husband and my heartbeat."
