Uncle Sams Plantation:

Uncle Sam's Plantation Star Parker, Escape from Uncle Sam's Plantation Ed Temple, 2019-04-05 A teacher for over two decades Edward Temple knows all about what your kids are learning in school He has teaching experience in rural schools and big city schools in Florida Pennsylvania and in Ohio He has wanted to speak out for many years but feared losing his job Mr Temple finally made the escape and is now teaching at a Christian school where he has the freedom to expose the truth

Cabanocey Lillian C. Bourgeois, 1999-04-30 Louisiana has sixty four parishes and many of them are as individual and different as the state itself is different from others in the Union St James Parish a small parish of 249 square miles is not only one of the oldest settlements in the state but it is different in its population make up and is important historically Cabanocey is a splendid history of the Parish of St James Lillian C Bourgeois captured the spirit that animates the population which is descended from French Spanish Acadian German and Creole peoples Bourgeois writes of the population s customs beliefs language differences and folklore Cabanocey is not a collection of dry facts and dates rather it vividly describes how more than one hundred years ago the people of St James Parish lived who they were and what they contributed to their parish and their state Before the Civil War St James Parish was the educational center of Louisiana and Jefferson College was the first important college in the state Founded in 1830 it had fine buildings a well equipped laboratory and an impressive library The Convent of the Sacred Heart 1835 for girls was well known by prominent families in Louisiana Mexico and Central America who sent their daughters there Cabanocey contains St James genealogies and thousands of names of early settlers including the soldiers taxpayers officials prominent families and the first settlers and their children From the early censuses and church and court records descent is traced for many names The censuses of 1766 1769 and 1777 are complete and were obtained from the archives in Seville Spain

Uncle Sam Plantation Papers ,1851 Uncle Sam Plantation Papers ,1896 Uncle Sam Plantation Papers ,1901 Robert W. Tebbs, Photographer to Architects Richard Anthony Lewis, 2011-12-05 One of the finest architectural photographers in America Robert W Tebbs produced the first photographic survey of Louisiana s plantations in 1926 From those images now housed in the Louisiana State Museum and not widely available until now 119 plates showcasing fifty two homes are featured here Richard Anthony Lewis explores Tebbs s life and career situating his work along the line of plantation imagery from nineteenth century woodcuts and paintings to later twentieth century photographs by John Clarence Laughlin among others Providing the family lineage and construction history of each home Lewis discusses photographic techniques Tebbs used in his alternating panoramic and detail views A precise documentarian Tebbs also reveals a poetic sensibility in the plantation photos His frequent emphasis on aspects of decay neglect incompleteness and loss lends a wistful aura to many of the images an effect compounded by the fact that many of the homes no longer exist This noticeable vacillation between objectivity and sentiment Lewis shows suggests unfamiliarity and even discomfort with the legacy of slavery Poised on the brink of social and political reforms Louisiana in the mid 1920s had made significant strides away from the slave based agricultural economy that the plantation house often symbolized

Tebbs's Louisiana plantation photographs capture a literal and cultural past reflecting a burgeoning national awareness of historic preservation and presenting plantations to us anew

Select plantations included Ashland Belle Helene Avery Island Belle Chasse Belmont Butler Greenwood L Hermitage Oak Alley Parlange Ren Beauregard House Rosedown Seven Oaks Shadows on the Teche The Shades and Waverly

Uncle Sam Plantation Papers, 1866 Louisiana Buildings, 1720-1940 Jessie Poesch, Barbara SoRelle Bacot, 1997-08-01

The only New Deal program to continue into the 1990s the Historic American Buildings Survey has through the years drawn attention to the historical and artistic significance of buildings that contemporary taste might otherwise have ignored

Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 makes easily available the fruit of HABS's important and enduring efforts to record Louisiana's architectural heritage

In the 1930s the Louisiana HABS team concentrated on public edifices and grand plantation complexes threatened by destruction

Later records of HABS include still other habitations of the common man as well as industrial structures

The project has yielded not only graphic and written documentation of the buildings many no longer standing but also new insights into the history of the state's architecture

An invaluable part of Louisiana Buildings 1720 1940 is the alphabetical listing of HABS structures in Louisiana both by familiar name and by parish

The listing by parish gives the location the date of construction the architect when known and the current status of each building

It also presents drawings or photographs of many of the structures over 300 pictures in all

There are besides nine chapters by leading architectural historians who cover all aspects of Louisiana architecture its Creole beginnings in the south of the state the Appalachian folk style in the north and developments on the plantation in the seventeenth century urban setting and in the modern era

Those chapters form an essential frame of reference for the data in the HABS listings and call attention to many other structures that are a part of the history of building in the Pelican State

Anyone interested in the state's architecture or history will find Louisiana Buildings indispensable

Lost Plantations of the South Marc R. Matrana, 2009-01-01

The great majority of the South's plantation homes have been destroyed over time and many have long been forgotten

In Lost Plantations of the South Marc R Matrana weaves together photographs diaries and letters architectural renderings and other rare documents to tell the story of sixty of these vanquished estates and the people who once called them home

From plantations that were destroyed by natural disaster such as Alabama's Forks of Cypress to those that were intentionally demolished such as Seven Oaks in Louisiana and Mount Brilliant in Kentucky Matrana resurrects these lost mansions

Including plantations throughout the South as well as border states Matrana carefully tracks the histories of each from the earliest days of construction to the often contentious struggles to preserve these irreplaceable historic treasures

Lost Plantations of the South explores the root causes of demise and provides understanding and insight on how lessons learned in these sad losses can help prevent future preservation crises

Capturing the voices of masters and mistresses alongside those of slaves and featuring more than one hundred elegant archival illustrations this book explores the powerful and complex histories of these cardinal homes across the South
