Undergraduate Application Form University Of Zambia 2015:

King Lewanika Akashambatwa Mbikusita-Lewanika, 2017-02-15 This book expands into the neglected history of Pan African Cross Border and African traditional leadership in the Southern African liberation struggle. It pays homage to the seven African Kings appointed as Honorary Presidents of Congress at its founding at Bloemfontein on January 8, 1912. These were Dalindyebo of the Thembus, Montsioa of the Barolong, Lewanika of Barotseland, Letsie II of Lesotho, Khama of Mangwato of Botswana, Marclane of Pondoland, and Mopei of the Bakgatla. King Lewanika of Barotseland is the subject of the memorial lecture Nelson Mandela named his second son Makgatho Lewanika in honour of Sefako Mapogo Makgatho, the second President of the ANC and King Lewanika of Barotseland. In his biography of Barotseland's sovereign ruler from 1878 to 1916, King Lewanika, the First, Gervas Clay writes that his life began in exile while his heritage lay under alien rule. He had seen the usurper defeated and annihilated and some of his royal relatives in turn enthroned in triumph and overthrown into despair and death. He had seen the country he loved torn by internecine wars and had himself barely escaped with his life into further exile. His triumphant return, he knew, would be without permanency of stability unless he discovered a new way to rule. He had learnt a better way and become popular with his people, whom he had led to treaties with the dominant colonial power of the age. He died full of honour, loved and respected by his people, leaving the heart of his country reserved to the Barotse by treaty rights and his own family secure on the throne. No African ruler of his time achieved more and none was more regretted by all who had known him. In SiLozi, the hybrid SeSotho-based national lingua franca, commonly shared language of Barotseland, the head of the national state, the King, goes by the title Mulena Yo Muhulu, meaning Supreme Ruler. In the Siluyana language, which is the language of the founding leadership of Barotseland, the King goes by the title Mbumu wa Litunga, or simply Litunga. Following the 1884 outbreak of civil war and after the 1885 triumph of being re-instated on the throne, Lubosi was referred to as Mbumu wa Litunga. Lewanika la Matunga, Mwana Kokoma Milonga, meaning the Supreme Lord of the Land, Unifier of Realms and Great Conqueror. From the first communications encounters and treaties, the British Government and its colonial authorities and agents acknowledged Litunga Lewanika as King Lewanika of Barotseland. Words of the last stanza of the Barotse National Anthem say it all: Imutakwandu Mulena Muhulu, Oh our late long serving Great King, Yo lu mu fiwe ki Muhauheli. Given to us by the grace of God, Ha lu punyuhile ha lu iketile. That we have survived, that we are at peace.

Educating in the Spirit Eric J. Kyle, 2019-05-16 This book is an attempt to address two struggles for theistic educators, e.g. those who approach their educational vocation from a religious perspective, whether they are working in secular or faith-based institutions. The first struggle is that while numerous guidelines on teaching excellence have been compiled, the resulting checklists can contain more than a hundred criteria to consider. This book therefore identifies the evidence-based guidelines that are likely to have the highest impact on student achievement, thereby empowering educators to focus their efforts in more substantial ways. The second struggle is related to the lack of resources which can help educators to view and approach their vocation from a theistic perspective While there are texts that discuss the relationship of spirituality and or theology to education few to date have sought to bring evidence based educational literature into dialogue with the western Christian tradition and thereby develop a bottom up theology of education This book addresses this historical and theological gap Overall this book is therefore intended to not only provide theistic educators with high impact guidelines that can significantly improve the quality of education in their school systems but it also strives to do so from a thoroughly theistic perspective Handbook of Speech-Language Therapy in Sub-Saharan Africa Ulrike M.
