Proceedings, American Philosophical Society (vol. 118, No. 4, 1974) , Debates, Controversies, and Prizes Tina Prunea-Bretonnet, Christian Leduc, 2024-06-27 This volume brings together a series of cutting edge studies on significant controversies and prize essay contests of the German Enlightenment It sheds new light on the nature and impact of the philosophical debates of the period while analyzing a range of pressing philosophical questions In doing so it focuses on controversies and prize competitions as conditions for the advancement of knowledge and the staking out of new philosophical terrain Chapters address not only the rich content of the questions but also their wider context including the theoretical framework of the debates and their institutional support and aims Together they demonstrate how these debates created a rallying point and generated momentum for sustained philosophical argument and engagement in the Enlightenment era The collection offers novel perspectives on the major role played by the Berlin Academy both within the German Enlightenment and across Europe more broadly Through the introduction of several understudied but key figures such as Johann Heinrich Abicht Leonhard Cochiu Pierre Le Guay de Pr montval and Guillaume Raynal it deepens our understanding of the richness and complexity of the period Arranged in three parts natural law and history metaphysics and anthropology the essays provide fascinating new material on areas such as the problem of language the emergence of psychology colonialism and the origins of aesthetics for the wider study of the intellectual milieu in eighteenth century Germany and beyond
