Une Histoire De S:

Pour une histoire des Alpes, Moyen Age et Temps Modernes Jean-François Bergier, 2024-10-28 The Alps as Professor Bergier shows in this selection of his work should not be considered an impassable barrier nor an isolated region but rather as an integral part of the history of Europe The lowlanders typical view of the mountains as fearful heights to be crossed and the image of those who lived there as existing in a delicate balance with nature are part only of the story These articles are particularly concerned with transalpine traffic and the different routes it took in response to changing circumstances in the lands to south and north and with the exploitation and use of mountain resources A number aim also to identify the particularities of the mountain way of life and its social and political organisation

Moungbakou: Production des Connaissances en Science, 2023-04-13 This book addresses the epistemological, ethical and methodological challenges faced by African scholars in their research practices The epistemological domain addresses three interrelated topics how African university students' ethnocentric choice of research topics hampers the production of knowledge researchers' adaptation of their research methods to improve validity and the challenge of knowledge production on community museums plagued by gross inertia, irregularities, uncooperative gatekeepers and inadequate funding The methodological domain foregrounds issues around scientific rigour, the criteria for what counts as quality research and reporting standards Contributors contend that the use of mixed methods provides the best scope for the effective study and evaluation of social issues They also detail how better funded projects tend to improve the respect of ethical standards especially as they pertain to the protection of subjects confidentiality Self financed researchers on the other hand tend to be less compliant a challenge that afflict especially younger and inexperienced researchers This volume thus contributes not only to a critical understanding of the challenges faced by social scientists in contemporary Africa but also the prospects and mechanisms on how to improve knowledge production processes

Universality / Universalité mineure Markus Messling, Jonas Tinius, 2023-08-21 The circulation and entanglements of human beings data and goods have not necessarily and by themselves generated a universalising consciousness The global and the universal in other words are not the same The idea of a world society remains highly contested Our times are marked by the fragmentation of a double relativistic character the inevitable critique of Western universalism on the one hand and resurgent identitarian and neo nationalistic claims to identity on the other Sources of an argumentation for a strong universalism brought forward by Western traditions such as Christianity Marxism and Liberalism have largely lost their legitimation All the while manifold and situated narratives of a common world that re address the universal are under way of being produced and gain significance This volume tracks the development and relevance of such cultural and social practices that posit forms of what we call minor universality It asks Where and how do contemporary practices open up concrete settings so as to create experiences reflections and agencies of a shared humanity With contributions by Isaac Bazi Anil Bhatti Jean Luc Chappey Elsie Cohen Leyla Dakhli Souleymane Bachir Diagne Nicole Fischer Albert Gouaffo Stefan Helgesson Fatma Hotait Christopher M Hutton Ananya Jahanara Kabir Mario Laarmann Rukmini Bhaya Nair Olivier Remaud Gis le Sapiro B n dicte Savoy Maria Anna Schiffers Laurens Schlicht Sergio Ugalde Quintana H l ne Thierard Khadija von Zinnenburg Carroll Routledge Companion to Sports History S. Solares, 2025-11-11 How engineering as a modern profession emerged as a global phenomenon and why its development and expansion are so critical to our understanding of twentieth century world history. An Engineered World examines the dramatic and global expansion of modern professional engineering between roughly 1870 and 1950. Over these decades the number of people who called themselves engineers or who were recognized as such by others expanded from a small and eclectic number of individuals to one of the most numerous mobile and influential professional groups of the twentieth century. Tens of thousands of university trained engineers and other professionalized technical experts, a few famous but most anonymous, became critical to the technological, organizational and political development of global capitalism and socialism in the twentieth century. This was the case in Western Europe and the United States and it was also true in colonial settings and independent countries around the world where the institutions of modern engineering were often established in the same era. This collection, edited by Edward Beatty and Israel Solares, presents eight case studies of engineers' work and interactions situated in local, national or regional places but always intersecting with global influences. Contributors: Edward Beatty, Marco Bertilorenzi, Aurora Gomez Galvarriato, Mark Hendrickson, Doug Jones, Elisabeth Kell, Aparajith Ramnath, Israel G. Solares, Stephen Tuffnell, Mikael Wolfe.
