Une Saison Dans La Vie De Emmanuel Marie Claire Blais:

A Season in the Life of Emmanuel Marie Claire Blais, 1980 A Season in the Life of Emmanuel Marie-Claire Blais, 1992 In her third and most powerful novel Marie Claire Blais explores with sober compassion and realistic detail a season in the life of Emmanuel the sixteenth child of a poverty stricken farmer's family in rural Quebec First published in 1965 A Season in the Life of Emmanuel established Blais's international reputation when it won the Prix France Quebec and the Prix Medicis of France The novel has been translated into 13 languages Marie-Claire Blais; le noir et le tendre Vincent Nadeau, 1974 Une saison dans la vie d'Emmanuel Yvon Morin, 1972 Une saison dans la vie d'Emmanuel; roman Marie-Claire Blais, 1965 Marie-Claire Blais Irene Oore, Oriel MacLennan, 1998-03 The most comprehensive reference guide to one of Canada's most distinguished writers A three time Governor General's Award winner Marie Claire Blais has changed the literary landscape of the nation An indispensable source for information on both Blais's works and on the wealth of criticism devoted to the writer this bibliography also provides accurate and insightful details about manuscript and archival material Oore and MacLennan have fully annotated all of the critical material concerned with Blais's writing and their book also includes thorough coverage of Blais related radio and television broadcasts in France and Canada as well as a guide to all published interviews with this important writer An essential text to Blais scholars and of great interest to students and researchers in both Canadian and Quebec literature and in women's studies and comparative literature The Postwar Novel in Canada Rosmarin Heidenreich, 2006-01-01 As a comparative study which includes the analysis of both English Canadian and Quebec novels this book provides an overview of the novel as it has developed in this country since the Second World War Focusing on narratological rather than thematic elements the book represents a systematic application of the insights and analytical tools of reader reception theory in particular the models proposed by Wolfgang Iser and Hans Robert Jauss Placing the emphasis on the text and its effects rather than on the historical or psycho sociological genesis of the text the author invokes the models and paradigms of other literatures to establish a broader cultural context permitting the significance of a literature to emerge as a carrier of meaning in and beyond the culture that produces it Tracing a critical path from Hugh MacLennan's hierarchic romance structures and Gabrielle Roy's social realism to the metafiction of Hubert Aquin and Timothy Findley the author reveals that the novel's narratological features themselves are often closely linked with ideological positions The Catholic Church and Unruly Women Writers J. DelRosso, L. Eicke, 2007-11-12 This collection attends to western women's struggles within Roman Catholicism by examining how women throughout the centuries have attempted to reconcile their unruliness with their Catholic backgrounds or conversions Marie-Claire Blais Vincent Nadeau, 1974 Mobility of Light Louise H. Forsyth, 2009 On strands of light I am hanging poetry like garlands These first words of poetry from Nicole Brossard anticipate the vast body of work she has published in the last four decades The poems in Mobility of Light were chosen by Louise H Forsyth to elicit a sense of these whirling garlands and convey the intense energy physical creative spiritual erotic imaginative playful ethical and political that has carried Brossard to a uniquely significant vision of the human spirit Poems are presented in French and English on facing pages underscoring the density of meaning in each word and line and highlighting the unusual rhythms in Brossard's originals and the extraordinary sonorities with which they beat Some of the translations in this volume have been previously published while others are new In her afterword Brossard talks about travelling back in time to discover how our most vivid sensations emotions and thoughts are nourished and transformed by our enigmatic relation to language

History of Literature in Canada Reingard M. Nischik, 2008 The development of literature in Canada with an eye to its multicultural multiethnic multilingual nature From modest colonial beginnings literature in Canada has arrived at the center stage of world literature Works by English Canadian writers both established writers such as Margaret Atwood and new talents such as Yann Martel make regular appearances on international bestseller lists French Canadian literature has also found its own voice in the North American and francophone worlds CanLit has likewise developed into a staple of academic interest pursued in Canadian Studies programs in Canada and around the world This volume draws on the expertise of scholars from Canada Germany Austria and France tracing Canadian literature from the indigenous oral tradition to the development of English Canadian and French Canadian literature since colonial times Conceiving of Canada as a single but multifaceted culture it accounts for specific characteristics of English and French Canadian literatures such as the vital role of the short story in English Canada or that of the chanson in French Canada Yet special attention is also paid to Aboriginal literature and to the pronounced transcultural ethnically diverse character of much contemporary Canadian literature thus moving clearly beyond the traditions of the two founding nations Contributors Reingard M Nischik Eva Gruber Iain M Higgins Guy Lafleur Dorothee Scholl Gwendolyn Davies Tracy Ware Fritz Peter Kirsch Julia Breitbach Lorraine York Marta Dvorak Jerry Wasserman Ursula Mathis Moser Doris G Eibl Rolf Lohse Sherrill Grace Caroline Rosenthal Martin Kuester Nicholas Bradley Anne Nothof Georgiana Banita Gilles Dupuis and Andrea Oberhuber Reingard M Nischik is Professor of American Literature at the University of Constance Germany

Quinze classiques de la littérature québécoise Sylvain Campeau, Patrick Moreau, 2015-09-28T07:30:00-04:00 Quelles œuvres peuvent aujourd'hui être tenues pour des classiques de la littérature québécoise ? Quels sont les romans, essais, pièces de théâtre, recueils de poésie, récits, etc. qui méritent d'être lus, relus et étudiés en classe ? En d'autres mots, quels livres sont susceptibles de servir de jalons à l'histoire de cette littérature tout en présentant un intérêt évident pour le lecteur contemporain ? Telles sont les questions que nous avons posées. Michel Biron, professeur à l'Université McGill et coauteur de l'Histoire de la littérature québécoise 2007, il en est résulté la liste des quinze textes suivants que nous avons ensuite soumise des spécialistes pour qu'ils l'analysent et la commentent afin de faire ressortir les qualités de chacun d'entre eux, ce qui précède maintenant en fait des classiques littéraires que les lecteurs d'aujourd'hui auraient non seulement plaisir mais aussi tout intérêt à découvrir ou redécouvrir.

Francophone Literatures M. H. Offord, 2001 Unique in its analysis both of literary and linguistic techniques this text draws together extracts from novels written in French by writers from Francophone areas outside Europe including North Africa, Black Africa, the Caribbean and North America

French Quebec British Library, Bibliothèque nationale du Québec, 1992

Canada : Images D'une Société Post/nationale Nordic Association for Canadian Studies. International Conference, 2009

Has Canada moved beyond the nation state into the world of the post national ? To what extent have fixed notions of Canadian nationhood been replaced by a more global, decentralized sense of identification ? Is nationhood or post nationhood best expressed by statelessness and exile or by belonging ? Or can Canadian national identity in fact fruitfully coexist with the post national consciousness ? These are some of the issues covered by this volume, issues seen from a range of perspectives: literary, cultural, political and economic. In the literary sphere the national/post national debate is explored both through canonical writers such as L.M. Montgomery, Stephen Leacock and Marie-Claire Blais and through recent First Nations, Asian Canadian, African Canadian, Ukrainian Canadian and Quebec writing. The political and economic range is equally diverse, covering such topics as immigration policy, multiculturalism, Canadian-American relations, tourist imaginings of the Canadian North, the

Canadian city and Quebec nationalism The book brings together 27 original articles from international scholars and creative writers offering both European and Canadian perspectives Six articles in French focus specifically on the francophone sphere

France and the Americas Bill Marshall, 2005-05-24 A unique multidisciplinary encyclopedia covering the impacts that French and American politics foreign policy and culture have had on shaping each country's identity From 17th century fur traders in Canada to 21st century peacekeepers in Haiti from France's decisive role in the Revolutionary War leading to the creation of the United States to recent disagreements over Iraq France and the Americas charts the history of the inextricable links between France and the nations of the Americas This comprehensive survey features an incisive introduction and a chronology of key events spanning 400 years of France's transatlantic relations Students of many disciplines as well as the lay reader will appreciate this comprehensive survey which traces the common themes of both French policy language and influence throughout the Americas and the wide ranging transatlantic influences on contemporary France

The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature Cynthia Conchita Sugars, 2016 The Oxford Handbook of Canadian Literature provides a broad ranging introduction to some of the key critical fields genres and periods in Canadian literary studies The essays in this volume written by prominent theorists in the field reflect the plurality of critical perspectives regional and historical specializations and theoretical positions that constitute the field of Canadian literary criticism across a range of genres and historical periods The volume provides a dynamic introduction to current areas of critical interest including 1 attention to the links between the literary and the public sphere encompassing such topics as neoliberalism trauma and memory citizenship material culture literary prizes disability studies literature and history digital cultures globalization studies and environmentalism or ecocriticism 2 interest in Indigenous literatures and settler Indigenous relations 3 attention to multiple diasporic and postcolonial contexts within Canada 4 interest in the institutionalization of Canadian literature as a discipline 5 a turn towards book history and literary history with a renewed interest in early Canadian literature 6 a growing interest in articulating the affective character of the literary including an interest in affect theory mourning melancholy haunting memory and autobiography The book represents a diverse array of interests from the revival of early Canadian writing to the continued interest in Indigenous regional and diasporic traditions to more recent discussions of globalization market forces and neoliberalism It includes a distinct section dedicated to Indigenous literatures and traditions as well as a section that reflects on the discipline of Canadian literature as a whole
