Une Autre France:

, The Narrative Mediterranean Claudia Esposito, 2013-11-29 The Narrative Mediterranean Beyond France and the Maghreb examines literary texts by writers from the Maghreb and positions them in direct relation to increasingly querulous debates on the shifting identity of the modern Mediterranean This book argues that reading works by writers such as Albert Camus and Tahar Ben Jelloun alongside authors such as Fawzi Mellah and Mahi Binebine in a transnational rather than binary interpretive framework transcends a colonial and postcolonial bind in which France is the dominant point of reference While focusing on works in French this book also examines Maghrebi authors who write in Italian The texts examined in The Narrative Mediterranean critique narrow identitarian labeling warn against sectarianism and announce the necessity of multiple forms of translation and historical rewritings Their modes of expression differ as they range from poetic to baroque to realist as do their concerns which include but are not limited to the human condition gender identity and emigration Claudia Esposito explains how these writers operate between and outside the confines of several nations tracing imagined affiliative horizons and consequently address questions of multiple forms of cultural political sexual and existential belonging Esposito convincingly demonstrates that in a Mediterranean context moving between nations means to be in both foreign and familiar physical affective and intellectual spaces

Lordship and the Decentralized State in Late Medieval Europe

Erika Graham-Goering, Jim van der Meulen, Frederik Buylaert, 2025-01-23 Lordship and the Decentralized State in Late Medieval Europe rethinks the rise of modern European states as a process of decentralization The idea that states made lordships obsolete is challenged by showing how the distribution of authority among local lords reinforced the development of new political systems

Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège, 2009-12-11 Cinema has been long associated with France dating back to 1895 when Louis and Auguste Lumièr screened their works the first public viewing of films anywhere Early silent pioneers Georges Méliès Alice Guy Blaché and others followed in the footsteps of the Lumièr brothers and the tradition of important filmmaking continued throughout the 20th century and beyond In Encyclopedia of French Film Directors Philippe Rège identifies every French director who has made at least one feature film since 1895 From undisputed masters to obscure one timers nearly 3 000 directors are cited here including at least 200 filmmakers not mentioned in similar books published in France Each director s entry contains a brief biographical summary including dates and places of birth and death information on the individual s education and professional training and other pertinent details such as real names when the filmmaker uses a pseudonym The entries also provide complete filmographies including credits for feature films shorts documentaries and television work Some of the most important names in the history of film can be found in this encyclopedia from masters of the Golden Age_Jean Renoir and RenZ Clair_to French New Wave artists such as Fran ois Truffaut and Jean Luc Godard

Gripes Jean-Claude Kaufmann,2009-12-14 We all know what it s like to be annoyed by little things that our husband wife or partner does leaving the cap off the toothpaste tube leaving the toilet lid up leaving dirty clothes on the floor and we know how easily these little grievances of everyday life can spin out of control In this brilliant new book the sociologist Jean Claude Kaufmann shows us how and why sparks can suddenly fly even in the most well adjusted couples They see themselves as being in total harmony but they are mistaken The clash between their uniquely individual attitudes to life rumbles on in silence until suddenly erupting in emotional outbursts each time an object or an attitude reveals for the thousandth time the unbearable and incomprehensible otherness of the partner When this occurs a whole panoply of tactics is deployed ranging from the combative secret acts of revenge through the neutral sulking to the subtly loving But these stormy episodes within relationships can have a happy ending for it is through learning to overcome these irritations and aggravations that love is ultimately strengthened

Orientalist Aesthetics Roger Benjamin,2003-02-03 Lavishly illustrated with exotic images ranging from Renoir s forgotten Algerian oeuvre to the abstract vision of Matisse s Morocco and beyond this book is the first history of Orientalist art during the period of high modernism Roger Benjamin drawing on a decade of research in untapped archives introduces many unfamiliar paintings posters miniatures and panoramas and discovers an art movement closely bound to French colonial expansion Orientalist Aesthetics approaches the visual culture of exoticism by ranging across the decorative arts colonial museums traveling scholarships and art criticism in the Salons of Paris and Algiers Benjamin s rediscovery of the important Society of French Orientalist Painters provides a critical context for understanding a lush body of work including that of indigenous Algerian artists never before discussed in English The painter critic Eug ne Fromentin tackled the unfamiliar atmospheric conditions of the desert Etienne Dinet sought a more truthful mode of ethnographic painting by converting to Islam and Mohammed Racim melded the Persian miniature with Western perspective Benjamin considers armchair Orientalists concocting dreams from studio bric brac naturalists who spent years living in the oases of the

Sahara and Fauve and Cubist travelers who transposed the discoveries of the Parisian Salons to create decors of indigenous figures and tropical plants The network that linked these artists with writers and museum curators was influenced by a complex web of tourism rapid travel across the Mediterranean and the march of modernity into a colonized culture

Orientalist Aesthetics shows how colonial policy affected aesthetics how Europeans visualized cultural difference and how indigenous artists in turn manipulated Western visual languages

Alcohol, Sex and Gender in Late Medieval and Early Modern Europe L. Martin, 2001-01-19 This book examines drinking and attitudes to alcohol consumption in late medieval and early modern England France and Italy especially as they related to sexual and violent behavior and to gender relations According to widespread beliefs the consumption of alcohol led to increased sexual activity among both men and women and it also led to disorderly conduct among women and violent conduct among men Dr

Lynn shows how alcohol was a fundamental part of the diets of most people including women resulting in daily drinking of large amounts of ale beer or wine This study offers an intimate insight into both the altered states induced by alcohol and by opposition into normal relations in family community and society

Agrarian Change and Crisis in Europe, 1200-1500

Harilaos Kitsikopoulos, 2012-03-15 Agrarian Change and Crisis in Europe 1200 1500 addresses one of the classic subjects on economic history the process of aggregate economic growth and the crisis that engulfed the European continent during the late Middle Ages This was not an ordinary crisis During the period 1200 1500 Europe witnessed endemic episodes of famine and a wave of plague epidemics that amounted to one of its worst health crises rivaled only by the Justinian plague in the sixth century These challenges called into question the production of goods and services and the distribution of wealth opening the possibility of fundamental systemic change This book offers an empirical synthesis on a host of economic demographic and technological developments which characterized the period 1200 1500 It covers virtually the entire continent and places equal emphasis both on providing a solid factual framework and comparing and contrasting various theoretical interpretations The broad geographical and conceptual scope of the book renders it indispensable not only for undergraduate students who take courses relating to the economic and social life of the Middle Ages but also to more advanced scholars who often specialize in only one country or region
