Talent Show Judging Forms:

Horse Camp Nicole Helget, Nate LeBoutillier, 2012-05-08 When their mom said she was sending twelve year old Percy and Penny and their little brother Pauly to stay with an uncle they'd never met she tried to make it sound better by saying that Uncle Stretch's farm was a horse camp Well the farm animals are actually chickens and pigs and the only two horses are mean tempered and not too keen on being ridden by kids As Penny puts it This farm is like the eighteenth century but way worse The water has a rusty taste and all the meat used to be animals on the farm If there is one thing the twins can agree on it's that between endless chores no Internet or cell phones and the prospect that their mom might have to stay in jail even though some people say she's a hero horse camp is a big fat joke Will they ever have a real family again Or is there a family for them right here Nicole Helget and Nate LeBoutillier have written a funny novel about farms and family animals and antagonism and the paths kids take sometimes while living in the same house before coming home

I Want to Change My Life

Barrie Gunter, 2014-07-24 Competition talent shows have been among the most popular on television in the 21st century The producers of these shows claim to give ordinary people extraordinary opportunities to change their lives by showcasing a specific skill leading to a new career trajectory Most participants will claim that they entered to get a big break and to develop a career they have always dreamed of To what extent do these shows deliver on such promises Following through what happens to leading contestants in singing entertainment modelling cooking and business entrepreneur competitions this book shows that few go on to achieve lasting success in their chosen career Many return to obscurity or to their previous lives Some enjoy a low level career in the new direction delivered by the competition they entered Just a few become truly successful The pop and entertainment themed contests have discovered just a handful of major pop stars and entertainers out of many hundreds who have taken part after the initial auditions Turning to the cookery or business franchises there are few who go on to achieve lasting success in their chosen career In these it is equally likely that the winners go on to enjoy success with media careers rather than as chefs or entrepreneurs The most successful franchise of all is the fashion model competition Next Top Model which has yielded a high hit rate in terms of career success What the analysis here also reveals is that it isn't only the winners who ultimately benefit the most from their appearances in these shows Moreover television picks its own stars by recruiting contestants because they are telegenic or have a good backstory as much as for their relevant talents In this way a talent hungry medium has co-opted these franchises to replenish its own needs

Native American Princess Pageants Sebahattin Ziyanak, Steven Aicinena, 2024-10-15 This book delivers a systematic investigation of Native American princess pageants exploring when and why they started how they spread across and within Native

American communities the ways in which these pageants differ from other contests such as Miss USA the workings of the pageants themselves and their socio cultural costs and benefits Make Me a Star Anastasia Brown, Brian Mansfield, 2008-04-08 Talent is not enough to make it in the music business and the insights tips and techniques in Make Me A Star will give readers the edge they need to stand out to even the toughest judges on television or anywhere in the music business Anastasia Brown music producer and judge of Nashville Star provides the insight anyone wanting to make it in the music business needs to know whether through music contests or going the traditional route From creating a memorable first impression to planning a winning strategy for sustained success every step of the process is addressed Behind the scenes stories of what worked and what didn't from such performers as Keith Urban Reba McEntire Carrie Underwood and many more show the human side of the journey Make Me a Star helps the reader determine his or her strengths and gives advice based on those strengths Each chapter will also include insight from top producers agents publicists and stylists They say a smart man learns from his mistakes but a wise man learns from another's mistakes Some pitfalls are necessary for an artist's development but not all The stories and advice within these pages are not merely rhetoric or theory they are hard fought and hard won experiences from those who've been in the trenches Keith Urban Billboard, 1986-04-05 In its 114th year Billboard remains the world's premier weekly music publication and a diverse digital events brand content and data licensing platform Billboard publishes the most trusted charts and offers unrivaled reporting about the latest music video gaming media digital and mobile entertainment issues and trends A Critique of Judgment in Film and Television S. Panse, D. Rothermel, 2014-04-24 A Critique of Judgment in Film and Television is a response to a significant increase of judgment and judgmentalism in contemporary television film and social media by investigating the changing relations between the aesthetics and ethics of judgment Managing Stress Brian Seaward, 2011-08-24 This journal allows students to identify common causes of stress in their lives and develop skills to manage them Writing in this journal for a period of weeks or months and then reading over the passages will help students sort through personal social or even global issues This journal is the perfect companion to any stress management course or workshop Relocating Television Jostein Gripsrud, 2012-07-26 For over half a century television has been the most central medium in Western democracies the political social and cultural centrepiece of the public sphere Television has therefore rarely been studied in isolation from its socio cultural and political context there is always something important at stake when the forms and functions of television are on the agenda The digitisation of television concerns the production contents distribution and reception of the medium but also its position in the overall largely digitised media system and public sphere where the internet plays a decisive role The articles in this comprehensive collection are written by some of the world's most prominent scholars in the field of media communication and cultural studies including critical film and television studies Relocating Television offers readers an insight into studying television alongside the internet participatory media and other technocultural phenomena such as DVDs user generated content and everyday digital media production It also focuses on more specific programmes and phenomena including The Wire MSN amateur footage in TV news Bollywoodization of TV news YouTube fan sites tied to e g Grey s Anatomy and X Factor Relocating Television will be highly beneficial to both students and academics across a wide range of undergraduate and postgraduate courses including media communication and cultural studies and television and film studies
