Mistry is recognised as one of the most important contemporary writers of postcolonial literature. This study, the first of its kind, will provide scholars and students with an insight into the key features of Mistry's work. Peter Morey suggests how the author's writing can be read in terms of recent Indian political history, his native Zoroastrian culture and ethos, conventions of oral storytelling common to Persia and South Asia, and the experience of migration which now sees him living in Canada. The texts are viewed through the lens of diaspora and minority discourse theories to show how Mistry's writing is illustrative of marginal positions in relation to sanctioned national identities. Asian American Short Story Writers Guiyou Huang, 2003-06-30 Asian America has produced numerous short story writers in the 20th century. Some emerged after World War II, yet most of these writers have flourished since 1980. The first reference of its kind, this volume includes alphabetically arranged entries for 49 nationally and internationally acclaimed Asian American writers of short fiction. Each entry is written by an expert contributor and includes a biography, a discussion of major works and themes, a survey of the writer's critical reception, and primary and secondary bibliographies. Writers include Frank Chin, Sui Sin Far, Shirely Geok Lin Lim, Toshio Mori, and Bharati Mukherjee. An introductory essay provides a close examination of the Asian American short story, and the volume closes with a list of works for further reading.

Interpreting Homes in South Asian Literature Malashri Lal, Sukrita Paul Kumar, The search for the location in which the self is at home has been one of the primary projects of modern literature all over the world. Interpreting Homes in South Asian Literature attempts to map the narratives of the home in South Asian literature from the advance of modernity on the subcontinent till the present day. It aims to read more than the domestic into representations of the home to explore not only the geographical but also the psychological and material connotations of home. Its goal is to disassemble the concept of home in all its incarnations as confinement, as stability, as security, as myth, and as desire. The book problematises home and its experience in different contexts. It investigates if and how home changes its significations when articulated from different locations in different languages and by different subjects, paying particular attention to ideological determinants like gender and class. The editors of the anthology have encouraged contributors to also address diaspora writing and to achieve the widest possible comparative perspective. Though the focus has been kept on literature, some papers deal with cultural narratives of home in oral and folk mediums. The collection comprises of an Introduction and 18 original essays divided into six thematic sections.

Passages Barbara H. Solomon, Eileen Panetta, 2009-05-05 24 stories from today's best Indian authors. India's literary tradition has found a growing audience around the world. Many talented writers have arrived on the scene, each illuminating different parts of the Indian experience, from years of colonial rule to the unique challenges of life in the West. This important anthology includes short stories and novel excerpts from Salman Rushdie, Kiran Desai, Rohinton Mistry, Jhumpa Lahiri, Ruth Praver, Jhabvala, Anita Desai, Bharati Mukherjee, R. K. Narayan, and sixteen more.

Stories in Letters - Letters in Stories Rebekka Schuh, 2021-10-04 This book deals with letters in Anglophone

Canadian short stories of the late twentieth and the early twenty first century in the context of liminality It argues that in the course of the epistolary renaissance the letter which has often been deemed to be obsolete in literature has not only enjoyed an upsurge in novels but also migrated to the short story thus constituting the genre of the epistolary short story

Diasporic Subjectivity and Cultural Brokering in Contemporary Post-Colonial Literatures Igor Maver,2009-06-16

Diasporic writing simultaneously asserts a sense of belonging and expresses a sense of being ethnic in a society of immigration The essays in this volume explore how contemporary diasporic writers in English use their works to mediate this dissonance and seek to work through the ethical political and personal affiliations of diasporic identities and subjectivities The essays call for a remapping of post colonial literatures and a reevaluation of the Anglophone literary canon by including post colonial diasporic literary discourses Demonstrating that an intercultural dialogue and constant cultural brokering are a must in our post colonial world this volume is a valuable contribution to the ongoing discourse on post colonial diasporic literatures and identities

Ethnic Angst Dr. Ajay Sahebrao Deshmukh,2014-12-15 This book is one of the rare books that delves into the psyche of the Parsi community their culture and anxieties The book takes into consideration all these aspects reflected in the fiction of Bapsi Sidhwa and Rohinton Mistry Meticulous style deep critical insights into the literary critical cultural as well diasporic religious political and minority aspects are the hallmarks of this book The book is a superb model of comparative study This is must have for the students of language literature criticism
