Hunting Fish Jay Greenspan, 2007-04-01 If you want to prove you're a good poker player you don't have to battle against the best Nobody really cares if you ever bluffed Phil Ivey or got Daniel Negreanu to make a bad call You're at the table for the money not stories of conquest A disciplined player one who's playing for the right reasons would rather sit with the worst those he's sure to outplay He's looking for donkeys and donors He's hunting fish In Hunting Fish author Jay Greenspan sets out on a cross country drive from Connecticut to Los Angeles looking for players he can outclass In casinos underground clubs and home games throughout the country Jay shared tables with the most inept gamblers America has to offer In South Carolina he wiped out some racial epithet spewing good ole boys in Houston he fleeced the country club set and in Vegas he happily pounded drunken tourists Hunting Fish is however not merely the story of a hustler's travels In addition to fleecing suckers Jay was convinced he could beat the very best and make it as a full time pro This trip gave him the opportunity to build his bankroll to the point where he could test his mettle in high stakes games when he reached Los Angeles Although to play in the high limit rooms at Commerce Casino he needed a steady nerve and a fatter bankroll In his three months on the road he needed to pad his roll with an additional twenty thousand dollars That's a lot of fish to hunt
