Robert B. Munson

Tanzanie Dar Es Salam:

From Dar es Salaam to Bongoland Bernard Calas, 2010 The name Dar es Salaam comes from the Arabic phrase meaning house of peace A popular but erroneous translation is haven of peace resulting from a mix up of the Arabic words dar house and bandar harbour Named in 1867 by the Sultan of Zanzibar The town has for a long time benefitted from a reputation of being a place of tranquility The tropical drowsiness is a comfort To The socialist poverty and under equipment that causes an unending anxiety to reign over the town Today For the Tanzanian The town has become Bongoland that is a place where survival is a matter of cunning and intelligence bongo means brain in Kiswahili Far from being an anecdote this slide into toponymy records the mutations that affect the links that Tanzanians maintain with their principal city And The manner in which it represents them This book takes into account the changes by departing from the hypothesis that they reveal a process of territorialisation What are the processes envisaged as spatial investments which by producing exclusivity demarcations and exclusions fragment the urban space and its social fabric Do the practices and discussions of the urban dwellers construct limited spaces appropriated identified and managed by communities in other words territories Dar es Salaam is often described as a diversified relatively homogenous and integrating place However Is it not more appropriate to describe it as fragmented as territorialisation can only occur through frequenting management and localised investment it is therefore through certain places first shelter and residential area then the school daladala station The fire hydrant And The quays that the town is observed This led to broach the question in the geographical sense of urban policy carried out since German colonisation to date At the same time The analysis of these developments allows for an evaluation of the role of the urban crisis And The responses it brings In sum The aim of this approach is to measure the impact of the uniqueness of the place on the current changes On one hand this is linked to its long term insertion in the Swahili civilisation and on the other To its colonisation by Germany and later Britain and finally To the singularity of the post colonial path This latter is marked by an alternation of Ujamaa with Structural Adjustment Plans applied since 1987 How does this remarkable political culture take part in the emerging city today This book is a translation of De Dar es Salaam Bongoland Mutations urbaines en Tanzanie published by Karthala Paris in 2006 Tanzania Jens Finke, 2003 The Rough Guides series contain full color photos three maps in one and are waterproof and tearproof They contain thousands of keyed listings and bright new graphics

Tanzania Ebiz Guides, 2006-03 A unique new series for business travelers going to third world emerging countries to explore business opportunities Information on who is the present CEO of major corporations and how to contact is the local government stable current economy investment and legal framework main tourist destinations leisure itineraries and hotel information Revolutionary State-Making in Dar es Salaam George Roberts, 2022-12-22 Tracing Dar es Salaam's rise and fall as an epicentre of Third World revolution George Roberts explores the connections between the global Cold War African liberation struggles and Tanzania's efforts to build a socialist state Roberts introduces a vibrant cast of politicians guerrilla leaders diplomats journalists and intellectuals whose trajectories collided in the city In its cosmopolitan and rumour filled hotel bars embassy receptions and newspaper offices they grappled with challenges of remaking a world after empire Yet Dar es Salaam's role on the frontline of the African revolution and its provocative stance towards global geopolitics came at considerable cost Roberts explains how Tanzania's strident anti imperialism ultimately drove an authoritarian turn in its socialist project and tighter control over the city's public sphere This title is also available as Open Access on Cambridge Core Routledge Revivals: Language in Tanzania \(1980\) Edgar C. Robert B. Munson, 2013-10-29 The Nature of Christianity in Northern Tanzania explores the relationship between the region's environment and social change during the pivotal often overlooked German colonial period 1890 1916 The work connects changes in the landscape order and biogeography closely with the beginning Christianization of the three groups on the mountains the Chagga on Mt Kilimanjaro and the Meru and Arusha peoples of Mt Meru The work tells a story which is ordered green and Christian It looks at both new ideas and plants brought by the Germans to their colony in East Africa The introduced German like order and the exotic plants changed the landscape during the short period of German rule However the changes taking root in the African societies driven primarily by the introduction of Christianity led to an acceptance and adaptation of these imports Religious change is one of the most profound elements of social change and it deeply impacted the world view of the Chagga Meru and Arusha peoples Within all three groups their worldview was closely tied to religion there is no difference between the natural and social spheres nor the religious and secular worlds In the interaction between the German and Africans the ideas use of plants and even Christianity became altered Africanized and finally propagated by the African groups helping to create the new African European landscape This heritage lives on up till today growing on the landscape nurtured by the changes in the societies of the Chagga Meru and Arusha peoples on Mt Kilimanjaro and Mt Meru land-use investments in Zambia, Tanzania and Mozambique: A synthesis M Cecilia G Dalupan,Caroline Haywood,D Andrew Wardell,Marie-Claire Cordonnier-Segger,Robert Kibugi,2015-10-27 The International Development Law Organization IDLO and the Center for International Forestry Research CIFOR assessed the legal frameworks for major natural resource sectors in Zambia Tanzania and Mozambique to analyze whether and to what extent they enable sustainable investments National development plans in each country and their crosscutting laws on land and the environment incorporate principles of sustainable development However sector specific laws governing forestry agriculture mining and energy reflect these principles to varying degrees Relying significantly on natural resources these countries have witnessed consistent GDP growth in recent years Despite their resource wealth and increased investments poverty and resource degradation persist Rural populations remain disproportionately affected with limited access to basic services and increased vulnerability to the impacts of deforestation and climate change This Synthesis report outlines four key insights on issues identified by the legal assessments that can either hinder or enable sustainable land use investments These consist of Reframing investment incentives and focusing on smallholder interests Protecting customary land rights and ensuring consultation and consent Establishing clear and effective regulations strengthening enforcement capacity and supporting decentralization and Raising awareness guaranteeing participation and promoting freedom of information The report demonstrates that landscapes governance embodying the rule of law and adherence to social and environmental safeguards can create enabling conditions for sustainable investments Equity responsive legal and policy reforms improved enforcement capacity strengthened participatory mechanisms and other rule of law considerations are critical to planning and managing investments so that they contribute to sustainable development
