HIV and Aging M., Brennan-Ing,R.F., DeMarco,2016-11-22 Despite decades of attention on building a global HIV research and programming agenda HIV in older populations has generally been neglected until recently This new book focuses on HIV and aging in the context of ageism with regard to prevention treatment guidelines funding and the engagement of communities and health and social service organizations The lack of perceived HIV risk in late adulthood among older people themselves as well on the part of providers and society in general has led to a lack of investment in education testing and programmatic responses Ageism perpetuates the invisibility of older adults and in turn renders current medical and social service systems unprepared to respond to patients needs While ageism may lead to some advantages discounts for services for example it is the negative aspects that must be addressed when determining the appropriate community level response to the epidemic

Drugs and Public Health in Post-Soviet Central Asia Muyassar Turaeva,2022-08-27 The book outlines post Soviet style of health management in Central Asia Regional studies on Central Asia to date have focused on states politics religion and inter ethnic relations but not on the health system within the region Soviet style policies have also covered only other aspects relevant for the region This book highlights the public health situation of the region with a focus on drug abuse HIV AIDS in the context of increased mobility and drug trafficking routes which became even more porous after the break up of the Soviet Union Based on a qualitative study the empirical data in the book was collected during long term fieldwork conducted in Uzbekistan and Turkmenistan in 2010 2011 as well as shorter stays in Uzbekistan between 2012 2016 The analysis of the empirical material largely draws on the works of Foucault particularly his concept of biopolitics when analyzing Soviet style health management that is still practiced in the region Applying the Foucauldian genealogical method this study has been structured to trace the genealogy of epidemics to understand the historical path of drug abuse in the region as well as the discursive genealogy of drug politics and drug abuse Applying the same genealogical method of Foucault the formative and discursive trajectory of the institution of Uchyot was traced to contextualize the health governance methods that have historical legacy of Soviet style governance and control of the total population

Drugs and Public Health in Post Soviet Central Asia Soviet Style Health Management is a unique resource for academic specialists practitioners professionals and advanced undergraduate and graduate students in public health as well as a range of scholars and professionals in sociology political science anthropology and anyone with an interest in the Central Asia region drug addiction or HIV The book also could appeal to international donors in the field of HIV drug addiction who are working in the region
