Unapologetic Homeschoolers University Graduates By Nineteen:

The Theory-Story Reader for Social Studies Bretton A. Varga, Erin C. Adams, 2024 Theory holds the capacity to help educators see the world differently challenge problematic assumptions and practices that cultivate harm and illuminate pathways towards access equity justice joy and love While it is easy to underestimate the role of theory in such pursuits throughout social studies education this book shows that theory is always already present in all productions of teaching and learning In this collection well established scholars highlight a broad range of theories that are currently being used to alter the landscape of social studies instruction Important to these efforts is the position that theory does not exist in a vacuum but rather is the reflection of a certain set of concepts and the relationship that one holds to those ideas Taking this further each chapter author employs storytelling as a means to share their personal history and unpack how they came to understand their selected theoretical topic They address a breadth of concepts such as Black feminism psychoanalysis racial capitalism settler colonialism sustainability and technoskepticism Book Features The only resource of its kind that pairs storying with a far reaching range of theories actively being used by scholars in the field of social studies education and research Brief chapters arranged alphabetically by concept provide structure while also staying true to the book s framing of theory as being curious fragmented nomadic and discursive Embedded connections within each chapter meant to help readers understand the relational and entangled nature of theory Contributors include Sohyun An Kristen Duncan Jillian Ford Jim Garrett Wayne Journell Noreen Naseem Rodriguez Muna Saleh Sandra Schmidt Sarah Shear Cathryn van Kessel and Amanda Vickery
