The Empire Within Sean Mills, 2010-03-26 In a brilliant history of a turbulent time and place Mills pulls back the curtain on the decade s activists and intellectuals showing their engagement both with each other and with people from around the world He demonstrates how activists of different backgrounds and with different political aims drew on ideas of decolonization to rethink the meanings attached to the politics of sex race and class and to imagine themselves as part of a broad transnational movement of anti colonial and anti imperialist resistance The temporary unity forged around ideas of decolonization came undone in the 1970s however as many were forced to come to terms with the contradictions and ambiguities of applying ideas of decolonization in Quebec From linguistic debates to labour unions and from the political activities of citizens in the city s poorest neighbourhoods to its Caribbean intellectuals The Empire Within is a political tour of Montreal that reconsiders the meaning and legacy of the city s dissident traditions It is also a fascinating chapter in the history of postcolonial thought

A Companion to Boethius in the Middle Ages Noel Harold Kaylor, Philip Edward Phillips, 2012-05-03 The articles in this volume focus upon Boethius s extant works his De arithmetica and a fragmentary De musica his translations and commentaries on logic his five theological texts and of course his Consolation of Philosophy They examine the effects that Boethian thought has exercised upon the learning of later generations of scholars

Feeling Feminism Lara Campbell, Michael Dawson, Catherine Gidney, 2022-04-15 From beauty pageant protests to fire bombings of pornographic video stores emotions are a powerful but often unexamined force underlying feminist activism They are at play in the experiences of injustice exclusion caring and suffering that have fed women s commitment to building and sustaining a new world Feeling Feminism examines the ways in which emotions such as anger rage joy and hopefulness influenced second wave feminist action and theorizing across Canada Drawing on affect theory to convey the passion sense of possibility and collective political commitment that have characterized feminism the contributors to this volume reveal its full impact on contemporary Canada and highlight the contested sometimes exclusionary nature of the movement itself Insights from gender and women s studies cultural and literary theory social psychology and sociology infuse Feeling Feminism as the contributors explore how emotions shaped and nourished feminist activism More generally they demonstrate the power of emotions desires and actions to transform the world

professionals to keep track of and record living theatre Audiovisual recording techniques are now cheap and accessible to many electronic storage and dissemination of information and images has radically altered the relationship between the managers of collections and their potential users new techniques have introduced new possibilities for interactivity in exhibitions and displays These are just some of the issues addressed by the SIBMAS International Association of Libraries and Museum of the Performing Arts during its 25th Annual Conference held in Barcelona in 2004 Contemporary Quebec Michael D. Behiels, Matthew Hayday, 2011-11-30 In the last seventy years Quebec has changed from a society dominated by the social edicts of the Catholic Church and the economic interests of anglophone business leaders to a more secular culture that frequently elects separatist political parties and has developed the most comprehensive welfare state in North America In Contemporary Quebec leading scholars raise provocative questions about the ways in which Quebec has been transformed since the Second World War and offer competing interpretations of the reasons for the province's quiet and radical revolutions Bulletin Du Comité de L'Asie Française Comité de l'Asie française, 1903 Studia Phaenomenologica XI / 2011 Christian Ferencz-Flatz, 2011-01-01 Shakespeare in Quebec Jennifer Drouin, 2014-01-01 In Shakespeare in Quebec Jennifer Drouin analyses representations of nation and gender in Shakespearean adaptations written in Quebec since the Quiet Revolution Using postcolonial and gender theory Drouin traces the evolution of discourses of nation and gender in Quebec from the Conquest of New France to the present and she elaborates a theory of adaptation specific to Shakespeare studies Drouin's book explains why Quebecois playwrights seem so obsessed with rewriting le grand Will what changes they make to the Shakespearean text and how the differences between Shakespeare and the adaptations engage the nationalist feminist and queer concerns of Quebec society Close readings from ten plays investigate the radical changes to content that allowed Quebecois playwrights to advocate for political change and contribute to the hot debates of the Quiet Revolution the 1970 October Crisis the 1980 and 1995 referenda the rise of feminism and the emergence of AIDS Drouin reveals not only how Shakespeare has been adapted in Quebec but also how Quebecois adaptations have evolved in response to changes in the political climate As a critical analysis in English of rich but largely ignored French plays Shakespeare in Quebec bridges Canada's two solitudes Beheading the Saint Geneviève Zubrzycki, 2016-12-19 Through much of its existence Quebec's neighbors called it the priest-ridden province Today however Quebec society is staunchly secular with a modern welfare state built on lay provision of social services a transformation rooted in the Quiet Revolution of the 1960s In Beheading the Saint Geneviève Zubrzycki studies that transformation through a close investigation of the annual Feast of St John the Baptist of June 24 The celebrations of that national holiday she shows provided a venue for a public contesting of the dominant ethno-Catholic conception of French Canadian identity and via the violent rejection of Catholic symbols the articulation of a new secular Quebecois identity From there Zubrzycki extends her analysis to the present looking at the role of Quebecois identity in recent debates over immigration the place of religious symbols in the public sphere and the politics of cultural heritage issues that also offer insight on similar debates elsewhere in the world Histoire de France, depuis les origines jusqu'à la Révolution Ernest Lavisse, 1901 Countercurrents Amanda Ricci, 2023-06-15 In the decades following the Second World War women from all walks of life became increasingly frustrated by the world around them Drawing on long standing political traditions these women bound together to revolutionize social norms and contest gender inequality In Montreal women activists inspired by Red Power Black Power and Quebec liberation among other social movements mounted a multifront campaign against social injustice Countercurrents looks beyond the defining waves metaphor to write a new history of feminism that incorporates parallel social movements into the overarching narrative of the women's movement Case studies compare and reflect on the histories of the Quebec Native Women's Association the Congress of Black Women the Front de libération des femmes du Québec various Haitian women's organizations and the Collectif des femmes immigrantes du Québec and the political work they did Bringing to light previously overlooked archival and oral sources Amanda Ricci introduces a new cast of characters to the history of feminism in Quebec The book presents a unique portrait of the resurgence of feminist activism demonstrating its deep roots in Indigenous and Black communities its transnational scope and its wide ranging inspirations and preoccupations Advancing cross cultural perspectives on women's movements Countercurrents looks to the history of women's activism in Montreal and finds new ways of defining feminist priorities and imagining feminist futures Word of Mouth Gianni Guastella, 2017-02-10 The concept expressed by the Roman term fama although strictly linked to the activity of speaking recalls a more complex form of collective communication that puts diverse information and opinions into circulation by word of mouth covering the spreading of rumours expression of common anxieties and sharing of opinions about peers contemporaries or long dead personages within both small and large communities of people This hearsay method of information propagation of chain like transmission across a complex network of transfers of uncertain order and origin often rapid and elusive has been described by some ancient writers as like the flight of a winged word provoking interesting contrasts with more recent theories that anthropologists and sociologists have produced about the same phenomenon This volume proceeds from a brief discussion of the ancient concept to a detailed examination of the way in which fama has been personified in ancient and medieval literature and in European figurative art between the end of the fourteenth and the beginning of the sixteenth centuries Commenting on examples ranging from Virgil's Fama in Book 4 of the Aeneid to Chaucer's House of Fame it addresses areas of anthropological sociological literary and historical artistic interest charting the evolving depiction of fama from a truly interdisciplinary perspective Following this theme it is revealed that although the most important personifications were originally created to represent the invisible but pervasive diffusion of talk which circulates information about others these then began to give way to embodiments of the abstract idea of the glory of illustrious men By the end of the medieval period these two different representations of rumour and glory were variously combined to create the modern icon of Fame with which we are more familiar today

Constraining Chance Alison James, 2009-02-03 This text examines the representation and staging of chance in literature through the study of a specific case the work of the 20th century French writer Georges Perec 1936 82

Figures of Chance I Anne Duprat, Fiona McIntosh Varjabédian, Anne-Gaëlle Weber, 2024-03-14 Figures of Chance I Chance in Literature and the Arts 16th 21st Centuries proposes a transhistorical analysis that will serve as a reference work on the evolution of literary and artistic representations of chance and contingency Alongside its multidisciplinary companion volume Figures of Chance II it considers how the projective and predictive capacity of societies is shaped by representations and cultural models of a reality that is understood to varying degrees to be contingent unpredictable or chaotic Giving special emphasis to the French context while also developing broad cross cultural comparisons this volume examines the dialogue between evolving conceptions and changing representations of chance from Renaissance figures of Fortune to the data driven world of the present Written by recognized specialists of each of the periods studied it identifies and historicizes the main fictional and factual modes of portraying narrating and comprehending chance in the West Providence

Perceived Mark W. Elliott, 2015-04-24 This book will offer an account not so much of God's Providence an sich but rather of divine providence as experienced by believers and unbelievers It will not ask questions about whether and how God knows the future or how suffering can be accounted for as is the case in the treatments by William Lane Craig Richard Swinburne or J Sanders but will focus on prayer and decision making as a faithful and or desperate response to the perception of God as having some controlling influence The following gives an idea of the ground to be covered The patristic foundations of the Christian view of Providence The medieval synthesis of objective and subjective views Reformational and Early Modern the shift towards piety Modern Enlightenment Providence and Ethics Barth and the Sceptics The sense of Providence in the Modern Novel and World
