The Mediterranean and Middle East: Victory in the Mediterranean. pt. 1. 1st April to 4th June 1944 Ian Stanley Ord Playfair, 1954 S. George Gazala Kasserine Malta Monte Cassino The Pamphleteer Abraham John Valpy, 1826 The American Matisse Metropolitan Museum of Art (New York, N.Y.), Sabine Rewald, Magdalena Dabrowski, 2009 In a career spanning over six decades the New York art dealer Pierre Matisse 1900-1989 contributed substantially to the advancement of modern art. At his eponymous gallery on East Fifty-seventh Street he showed several now legendary artists for the first time outside Europe. The collection paintings sculpture and drawings by Balthus Bonnard Chagall Derain Dubuffet Giacometti Magritte and the dealer's own father Henri Matisse among others was donated to The Metropolitan Museum of Art in 2004 by the foundation established by his widow. These extraordinary artworks are presented with informative entries addressing the circumstances of each work's creation and the dealer's relationship to the artist. In the introduction the story of Pierre Matisse's early struggles in New York is told for the first time and illustrated with previously unpublished archival photographs. Informed by the collective memory of the first revolution how did the Church react to renewed catastrophe? How did it seek to influence political choice? Why did authoritarian government prove to be so attractive? This is a study of the impact of religion on political behaviour as well as of the politicisation of religion Roger Price employs the methodology of the social and cultural historian to explain the development and interaction of two key institutions Church and State during a period of political and social upheaval Drawing on a wide range of archival and printed primary sources as well as secondary literature this book analyses the diverse perceptions of people with power and the impact of their decisions and the responses of a wide range of individuals and communities
