In 2 Cor 10 13 as in the entire Pauline corpus the use of the first person plural is surprising Paul oscillates between singular I and plural We sometimes within the same sentence While this literary feature has never been seriously explored this study undertakes in the first part an investigation of the meanings of we in ancient Greek texts through several literary genres from Homer to the Hellenistic period The second part devoted to 2 Cor 10 13 shows the neat architecture of these chapters and the way the key theological message about weakness and power is delivered Also the occurrences of We and I throughout the text reveal a further underlying theology of authority En 2 Co 10 13 mais aussi dans l ensemble du corpus paulinien l utilisation de la premi re personne du pluriel est surprenante Paul passe souvent du je au nous et inversement parfois dans la m me phrase Ce trait litt raire n ayant pas encore t examin de mani re approfondie la pr
