Uneven Growth Tactical Urbanisms For Expanding:

Uneven Growth Pedro Gadanho, 2014 In 2030 the world's population will be a staggering eight billion people. Of these two thirds will live in cities and most will be poor. With limited resources this uneven growth will be one of the greatest challenges faced by societies across the globe. Over the next years city authorities, urban planners and designers, economists and many others will have to join forces to avoid major social and economical catastrophes, working together to ensure these expanding megacities will remain habitable. To engage this international debate, The Museum of Modern Art presents Uneven Growth: Tactical Urbanisms for Expanding Megacities, its third iteration in the Issues in Contemporary Architecture series. Following the same model as the critically acclaimed Rising Currents: Projects for New York's Waterfront and Foreclosed Rehousing the American Dream, Uneven Growth brings together an international group of scholars, practitioners and experts of architecture and urbanism in a series of workshops, an exhibition and a publication to focus on how emergent forms of tactical urbanism can address the increasing inequality of urban development around the globe. Featuring proposals for six global metropolises: New York, Mumbai, Rio de Janeiro, Istanbul, Hong Kong and Lagos, each developed by a team pairing local practitioners with international researchers, Uneven Growth documents the brainstorming sessions and workshops. Interviews with each team and essays by leading scholars on the issue make the publication a rich resource for students and professionals alike and a catalyst for worldwide change.

The Urbanism of Exception Martin J. Murray, 2017-03-10 This book challenges the conventional modernist inspired understanding of urbanization as a universal process tied to the ideal typical model of the modern metropolis with its origins in the grand Western experience of city building. At the start of the twenty first century the familiar idea of the city or urbanism as we know it has experienced such profound mutations in both structure and form that the customary epistemological categories and prevailing conceptual frameworks that predominate in conventional urban theory are no longer capable of explaining the evolving patterns of city making. Global urbanism has increasingly taken shape as vast distended city regions where urbanizing landscapes are increasingly fragmented into discontinuous assemblages of enclosed enclaves characterized by global connectivity and concentrated wealth on the one side and distressed zones of neglect and impoverishment on the other. These emergent patterns of what might be called enclave urbanism have gone hand in hand with the new modes of urban governance where the crystallization of privatized regulatory regimes has effectively shielded wealthy enclaves from public oversight and interference.

The Social (Re)Production of Architecture Doina Petrescu, Kim Trogal, 2017-07-14 The Social Re Production of Architecture brings the debates of the right to the city into today's context of ecological, economic and social crises. Building on the 1970s discussions about the production of space which French sociologist Henri Lefebvre considered a civic right, the authors question who has the right to make space and explore the kinds of relations that are produced in the process. In the emerging post capitalist era this book addresses urgent social and ecological imperatives for change and opens up questions around architecture's engagement with new forms of organization and practice The book asks what new kinds of social can architecture re produce and what kinds of politics values and actions are needed The book features 24 interdisciplinary essays written by leading theorists and practitioners including social thinkers economic theorists architects educators urban curators feminists artists and activists from different generations and global contexts The essays discuss the diverse global locations with work taking different and specific forms in these different contexts A cutting edge critical text which rethinks both practice and theory in the light of recent crises making it key reading for students academics and practitioners

Non-Standard Architectural Productions Sandra Karina Löschke, 2019-07-30 This book captures concepts and projects that reshape the discipline of architecture by prioritizing people over buildings In doing so it uncovers sophisticated approaches that go beyond standard architectural protocols to explore experience based aesthetics encounters action based research critical practices and social engagement If these are widely understood as singular or incompatible approaches the book reveals that they form a growing network of interrelations and generate levels of flexibility and dynamism that are reshaping the discipline The thirteen chapters analyze thought provoking projects branded museums restaged exhibitions home work spaces multi cultural spaces ageing apartment blocks abandoned homes and urban slums amongst them Together they enliven the stalled debate about a single architectural response to the complex challenges of the contemporary world by highlighting pluralistic perspectives on architecture that offer fresh solutions on how architecture can improve people's lives Featuring essays from an international range of authors this book makes a vital contribution to our understanding of the wider conditions under which and in relation to which contemporary architecture is produced

Extreme Cities Ashley Dawson, 2017-10-17 A cutting exploration of how cities drive climate change while being on the frontlines of the coming climate crisis How will climate change affect our lives Where will its impacts be most deeply felt Are we doing enough to protect ourselves from the coming chaos In Extreme Cities Ashley Dawson argues that cities are ground zero for climate change contributing the lion's share of carbon to the atmosphere while also lying on the frontlines of rising sea levels Today the majority of the world's megacities are located in coastal zones yet few of them are adequately prepared for the floods that will increasingly menace their shores Instead most continue to develop luxury waterfront condos for the elite and industrial facilities for corporations These not only intensify carbon emissions but also place coastal residents at greater risk when water levels rise In Extreme Cities Dawson offers an alarming portrait of the future of our cities describing the efforts of Staten Island New York and Shishmareff Alaska residents to relocate Holland's models for defending against the seas and the development of New York City before and after Hurricane Sandy Our best hope lies not with fortified sea walls he argues Rather it lies with urban movements already fighting to remake our cities in a more just and equitable way As much a harrowing study as a call to arms Extreme Cities is a necessary read for anyone concerned with the threat of global warming and of the cities of the world

exhibits and curatorial visions of the 2015 Shenzhen Biennale of Architecture and Urbanism UABB organized around the theme Re Living the City It highlights the contributions of dozens of international architects designers and artists and offers 12 probing original essays The projects and essays of UABB 2015 Re Living the City criticize the status quo of architecture and urbanism but they also resist the false dream of designing a perfect city from scratch Instead they portray the city as the incremental product of its inhabitants and designers who provisionally make and remake its fabric through various means at their disposal Urbanization in the world s fastest growing regions today has a dual character officially sanctioned large scale development shadowed by unregulated or informal spaces built by disenfranchised migrants UABB 2015 operates between these poles seeking alternative paradigms to generate a more sustain able equitable and imaginative urbanity The principal exhibitions of UABB 2015 include 1 Radical Urbanism curated by Alfredo Brillembourg and Hubert Klumpner Urban Think Tank based on the proposition that the city today is more radical than the architects and planners operating within it 2 Collage City 3D curated by Aaron Betsky in which artists and architects are asked to create adjacent three dimensional installations to explore the idea of habitable collage as a mode of urban design and 3 PRD 2 0 curated by Doreen Heng Liu focusing on the need for a more balanced approach to urbanism and architecture in the Pearl River Delta region in southeast China Liu also offers an account of the renovation of the Shenzhen exhibition venue the former Dacheng Flour Factory complex In addition the book presents the Social City online platform and exhibition curated by Renny Ramakers the Maker Maker showcase of contemporary craft and a series of national regional and thematic pavilions Curatorial essays are complemented by guest essays from international critics researchers and practitioners

The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement Farhan Karim, 2018-05-11 Socially engaged architecture is a broad and emerging architectural genre that promises to redefine architecture from a market driven profession to a mix of social business altruism and activism that intends to eradicate poverty resolve social exclusion and construct an egalitarian global society The Routledge Companion to Architecture and Social Engagement offers a critical enquiry of socially engaged architecture s current context characterized by socio economic inequity climate change war increasing global poverty microfinance the evolving notion of professionalism the changing conception of public and finally the growing academic interest in re visioning the social role of architecture Organized around case studies from the United States Brazil Venezuela the United Kingdom South Africa Rwanda Burkina Faso Nigeria Nepal Pakistan Iran Thailand Germany Australia Taiwan and Japan the book documents the most important recent developments in the field By examining diverse working methods and philosophies of socially engaged architecture the handbook shows how socially engaged architecture is entangled in the global politics of poverty reconstruction of the public sphere changing role of the state charity and neoliberal urbanism The book presents debates around the issue of whether architecture actually empowers the participators and alleviates socio economic exclusion or if it instead indirectly sustains an exploitive capitalism Bringing together a range of theories and case studies this companion offers a platform to facilitate future lines of inquiry in education research and practice Handbook of Neoliberalism Simon Springer, Kean Birch, Julie MacLeavy, 2016-07-07 Neoliberalism is easily one of the most powerful discourses to emerge within the social sciences in the last two decades and the number of scholars who write about this dynamic and unfolding process of socio spatial transformation is astonishing Even more surprising though is that there has until now not been an attempt to provide a wide ranging volume that engages with the multiple registers in which neoliberalism has evolved The Routledge Handbook of Neoliberalism seeks to offer a comprehensive overview of the phenomenon of neoliberalism by examining the range of ways that it has been theorized promoted critiqued and put into practice in a variety of geographical locations and institutional frameworks With contributions from over 50 leading authors working at institutions around the world the volumes seven sections will offer a systematic overview of neoliberalism s origins political implications social tensions spaces natures and environments and aftermaths in addressing ongoing and emerging debates The volume aims to provide the first comprehensive overview of the field and to advance the established and emergent debates in a field that has grown exponentially over the past two decades coinciding with the meteoric rise of neoliberalism as a hegemonic ideology state form policy and program and governmentality It includes a substantive introductory chapter and will serve as an invaluable resource for undergraduates graduate students and professional scholars alike Proceedings of the International Conference on Smart and Sustainable Built Environment (SASBE 2024) Ali GhaffarianHoseini, Amirhosein Ghaffarianhoseini, Farzad Rahimian, Mahesh Babu

Critical Theory The Last Stand for Emancipation gathers leading voices in contemporary critical thought to reassert the enduring relevance of a tradition forged in resistance From the early insights of the Frankfurt School to its intersections with decolonial queer ecological and postcolonial critiques this volume maps the evolving terrain of a radical project devoted to unveiling domination and envisioning emancipation At a time when neoliberal orthodoxy undermines critical scholarship and authoritarian populism distorts public discourse this book refuses resignation It offers instead a lucid and urgent intervention one that confronts the alienations of digital life the legacies of colonial violence and the manufactured chaos of late capitalism With essays ranging from genealogy to praxis from epistemology to affect this collection insists that critical theory is not an academic relic but a living practice of resistance Whether reckoning with the failures of progress or reclaiming hope as a political act Critical Theory The Last Stand for Emancipation is a call to think deeply act ethically and remember that critique remains a vital tool in the struggle for a more just world Recoded City Thomas Ermacora, Lucy

Bullivant, 2016-07-01 Recoded City examines alternative urban design planning and architecture for the other 90% namely the practice of participatory placemaking a burgeoning practice that co author Thomas Ermacora terms recoding In combining bottom up and top down means of regenerating and rebalancing neighbourhoods affected by declining welfare or struck by disaster this growing movement brings greater resilience Recoded City sheds light on a new epoch in the relationship between cities and civil society by presenting an emerging range of collaborative solutions and distributed governance models The authors draw on their own fresh research of global pioneers forging localist design strategies public realm interventions and new stakeholder dynamics As the world becomes increasingly digital and virtual a myriad of online tools and technological options is becoming available These give unprecedented co creation opportunities to communities and professionals alike yielding the benefits of a more open DIY society Because of its close engagement with people place and local identity the field of participatory placemaking has huge untapped potential Responding to the challenges of the Anthropocene era Recoded City is for decision makers developers and practitioners working globally to make better and more liveable cities

Contemporary Art Biennials in Europe Nicolas Whybrow, 2020-09-17 Through its examination of five quite different art events in cities across Europe Contemporary Art Biennials in Europe offers a compelling exploration of how public art takes place in the modern city Roughly tracing a central horizontal trajectory from the western to the eastern edges of the continent Nicolas Whybrow considers the Folkestone Triennial in the UK Sculpture Projects Münster in Germany the Venice Biennale in Italy Belgrade's Mikser Festival in Serbia and the Istanbul Biennial in Turkey Writing within the context of a thirty year international biennial boom Whybrow interrogates the extent to which biennial events and their artworks seek to engage with the socio cultural and political complexity of cities in particular the work that is involved in this relationship With its focus on Europe he also tells a composite story of continental difference at a moment of high tension centering on issues of migration political populism and uncertainty around the future form of the European Union

The Rent of Form Pedro Fiori Arantes, 2019-06-11 A critique of prominent architects approach to digitally driven design and labor practices over the past two decades With the advent of revolutionary digital design and production technologies contemporary architects and their clients developed a taste for dramatic unconventional forms Seeking to amaze their audiences and promote their global brands starchitects like Herzog de Meuron and Frank Gehry have reaped substantial rewards through the pursuit of spectacle enabled by these new technologies This process reached a climax in projects like Gehry's Guggenheim Bilbao and the Bilbao effect in which spectacular architectural designs became increasingly sought by municipal and institutional clients for their perceived capacity to enhance property values which author Pedro Fiori Arantes calls the rent of form Analyzing many major international architectural projects of the past twenty years Arantes provides an in depth account of how this architecture of exception has come to dominate today's industry Articulating an original compelling critique of the capital and labor practices that enable many contemporary projects Arantes explains how circulation via image culture consumption particularly through tourism the division of labor and the distribution of wealth came to fix a certain notion of starchitecture at the center of the industry Significantly Arantes's viewpoint is not that of Euro American capitalism Writing from the Global South this Brazilian theorist offers a fresh perspective that advances ideas less commonly circulated in dominant English language academic and popular discourse Asking key questions about the prevailing logics of finance capital and revealing inconvenient truths about the changing labor of design and the treatment of construction workers around the world The Rent of Form delivers a much needed reevaluation of the astonishing buildings that have increasingly come to define world cities Contested Spaces Concerted Projects Cristina F. Colombo, Jacopo Leveratto, 2022-05-18 European cultural heritage is inherently complex and layered In the past conflicting or controversial perspectives on different historical memories and experiences have been colliding in the rich cultural landscape of Europe and continue to do so in the present Contemporary projects of re activation of contentious spaces seem to challenge both the traditional design parameters and the role of spatial practitioners They require new strategies that effectively mix top down and bottom up impulses through a new design approach that is still in search of a clear definition Contested Spaces Concerted Projects collects the stories of some selected cases of difficult built heritage in order to highlight the most innovative methodologies of re activation by which architects artists designers and collectives have developed new participatory public interfaces Urban Humanities Dana Cuff, Anastasia Loukaitou-Sideris, Todd Presner, Maite Zubiaurre, Jonathan Jae-An Crisman, 2020-04-07 Original action oriented humanist practices for interpreting and intervening in the city a new methodology at the intersection of the humanities design and urban studies Urban humanities is an emerging field at the intersection of the humanities urban planning and design It offers a new approach not only for understanding cities in a global context but for intervening in them interpreting their histories engaging with them in the present and speculating about their futures This book introduces both the theory and practice of urban humanities tracing the evolution of the concept presenting methods and practices with a wide range of research applications describing changes in teaching and curricula and offering case studies of urban humanities practices in the field Urban humanities views the city through a lens of spatial justice and its inquiries are centered on the microsettings of everyday life The book s case studies report on real world projects in mega cities in the Pacific Rim Tokyo Shanghai Mexico City and Los Angeles with several projects described in detail including playful spaces for children in car oriented Mexico City a commons in a Tokyo neighborhood and a rolling story telling box to promote literary justice in Los Angeles Critical Strategies for Ecological Architectures Mathias Rollot, 2025-11-01 This book addresses the alarming state of the planet and considers a potential new role for architecture in the Anthropocene It explores ways in which architecture could contribute to solutions as well as how the discipline should prepare for the future Drawing on other disciplines such as bioregionalism animalism and decolonial thinking it demonstrates how architecture can extend its relevance The book introduces new theoretical approaches that encourage completely different ways of thinking showing and designing It introduces concepts such as human energy decolonial bioregionalism and emancipatory architecture which serve to challenge anthropocentric theories and promote more sustainable architectural practices This book makes an ethical appeal to architects and non architects alike proposing new strategies for thinking teaching and creating a wholly different kind of architecture for a rapidly changing world In doing so it addresses the challenges facing contemporary societies and ecological changes demonstrating how the ecological humanities can transform architecture as a field and radically alter its history references values and aims The book aims to contribute to a metamorphosis of architecture towards greater ecological and emancipatory capacity and towards pluriversal bioregions
