Abracadabra Robert Dessaix, 2022-04-14 The first time around these pieces were not widely heard or read A roomful of festival goers in Sydney or Penang or Ballarat could well have heard me hold forth on the subject of Enid Blyton say or kissing it's true and a few of my newspaper articles my feuilletons as I'm calling them may have caught the eye of some readers of the Byron Shire Echo some years ago It's not that these audiences were unappreciative but they were limited Nowadays a podcast can attract an audience of tens of thousands around the globe while I performed for the most part in more intimate spaces these were entertainments so to speak for unknown friends No festival organiser newspaper editor or publisher who has worked with Robert Dessaix is likely to have escaped a request for copies of his wonderful fleeting talks and short works or feuilletons These ephemeral pieces including an overlooked short story not my usual genre but it is also a performance after all a turn a number about love are the work of a conjurer whose words dazzle then seem to vanish almost as soon as they arrive They are collected and often annotated for the very first time in Abracadabra From the wonder of learning foreign languages to the words I wished I'd said Abracadabra is brimming with the thoughtful witty and humorous observations for which Dessaix is known and proves once again that his way with words is equally magical on the stage as it is on the page Part memoir and personal record Abracadabra is a work many years in the making an engrossing collection of observations and ideas which remind us why we read for pleasure after all Never Too Late Ofelia Gränd, A.M.

Porter, 2025-02-20 We live in a secular age or so we have been told Nevertheless the Christian church strongly believes that we still experience and in fact are surrounded by acts of transcendence encounters with God that often defy imagination and explanation And yet we do try to explain such phenomena whether theologically experientially biblically historically philosophically literarily or even or especially artistically These two volumes are more than just papers from a major conference on secularism and the pursuit of transcendence held at McMaster Divinity College in Hamilton Ontario They contain genuine attempts by people deeply engaged with their secular surroundings to explain what we mean by transcendence Transcendence has been a longstanding topic among the best thinkers of this and previous ages and the same is true for these volumes which include contributions by Charles Taylor Robert Wuthnow Merold Westphal and Christina Gschwandtner but also by a wide range of others who address the question from divergent vantage points The responses vary as much as the orientations of those involved in the pursuit of defining not only what it means to live in our secular age but to be involved in the pursuit of transcendence or even to perceive the Transcendent s pursuit of us Never Too Late to Dream David R.
