

My virtual Child Reflection

1. As our use of the program ends, what pathways does your child appear to be on in terms of physical, cognitive, social, emotional and moral development? Choose three aspects of your child to discuss. To what extent could you have predicted these pathways based on what you knew of your child's earlier development?

---1 point for discussing each of two pathways and 1 point each for providing supporting documentation (4 points)

2. Describe one specific way in which you think your parenting mattered for your child's development, based on evidence from the course regarding the contributions of parents to child development. Describe one specific way in which your child developed that appeared to be influenced by factors outside your control, such as genes, random environmental events or the general influence of contemporary middle-class American culture.

--- 1 point each for describing a parenting and non-parenting influences and 1 point for each example for providing evidence from the course that supports your choice of this influence as important (4 points)

3. Please explain three personal connections you made during this semester long assignment. These might include better understanding of a decision your parents made, impact on how you might parent, how you are parenting, the supports you might provide in your future career. These can be framed using the language "prior to this assignment I believed/understood _____, now I believe _____." This is because _____.

- 2 points each for specific descriptions of your shift in belief and supporting evidence. (6 points)

5. Did this lab provide a good practical application opportunity of the course content? Why or why not? Please provide at least 2 examples.

---2 points for each example. (4 points)

Handbook of Research on Effective Online Language Teaching in a Disruptive Environment LeLoup, Jean W., Swanson, Pete, 2021-11-26 The COVID 19 pandemic radically and rapidly and perhaps forever changed the K 20 educational landscape In March 2020 K 12 schools and institutions of higher education were forced to pivot quickly to online and remote teaching This new paradigm resulted in many teachers regardless of content area being unprepared In the field of second language teaching and learning world language and TESOL educators require the investigation of techniques used during the global pandemic to ensure continued success in online teaching practice The Handbook of Research on Effective Online Language Teaching in a Disruptive Environment provides strong and cogent guidance in the use of pedagogically sound methods of online language instruction This book builds an innovative knowledge base about teaching during disruptive times in the context of K 20 language learning that is supported with empirical evidence Covering topics such as online work engagement reflective practice and flipped classroom methods this handbook serves as a powerful resource for instructors of English language arts and TESOL TESOL professionals pre service teachers professors administrators instructional designers curriculum developers students researchers and academicians

Child's Play Re-envisioned through Virtual Reality Rene Novak, 2025-06-12 In this book Dr Rene Novak reveals new ways of understanding children's play by liberating it from the constraints of standardised educational agendas Drawing on Heidegger's concepts of Enframing and poiesis and phenomenological inquiry this innovative study explores how immersive virtual reality VR videos can serve as metaphysical laboratories Through vivid embodied experiences early childhood educators cross the cybernetic looking glass to become one with play and discover transformative insights for holistic child development Dr Rene Novak investigates the potential of immersive pedagogy by merging visual pedagogy with embodiment theory to highlight the critical role of teacher presence in educational phenomena Educators become invisible observers stepping inside the flow of play while relinquishing preconceived enframings and misconceptions The result is a reshaping of pedagogy and policy steering away from prescriptive goals toward play as a self actualising educational experience By reconceptualising how free play unfolds this book challenges educators policymakers and parents to embrace the true essence of play in early learning This book is an essential resource for anyone seeking to understand how to foster creativity social emotional growth and deeper engagement in a play based curriculum

Research Anthology on Remote Teaching and Learning and the Future of Online Education Management Association, Information Resources, 2022-09-02 The sudden implementation of emergency health procedures at the start of the COVID 19 pandemic forced many educators and educational institutions to explore new territory in terms of policy teaching strategy and more Now that many institutions are familiar with online education innovations have been developed and implemented It is essential to study these best practices and innovations that have been developed in remote teaching and learning to better understand the future of online education The Research Anthology on Remote Teaching and Learning and the Future of Online Education explores the recent developments strategies and innovations in remote teaching and learning that have been implemented globally Covering topics such as emergency remote teaching psycho social well being and cross cultural communication this major reference work is an indispensable resource for educators and administrators of both K 12 and higher education pre service teachers teacher educators librarians government officials IT managers researchers and academicians Virtual Reality Tatjana Crossley,2025-09-30 This book investigates how immersive environments across architecture art and media shape spatial perception cultural identity and the construction of reality It offers a spatial psychoanalytical reading of virtual reality VR examining how architecture and representation engage with the body sensorial experience and subjectivity Redefining VR as an experiential and spatial condition rather than simply a digital construct the book traces its lineage from ancient fresco rooms to contemporary digital landscapes Grounded in theoretical frameworks from psychoanalysis phenomenology and media theory it explores how immersive environments function as extensions of the body and reflect a collective identity Case studies from Pompeii to the Metaverse illustrate how architecture and representation shape our virtual experience Rather than viewing VR as a new phenomenon the book positions it as part of a longer trajectory in design and representation shaped by evolving tools and technologies It argues that the virtual spaces we create and the artifacts we choose to represent encode insights about identity memory and social conditions This book is written for theorists practitioners academics and students of architecture art and design It situates architectural practice within the unfolding discourse on virtuality identity and the cultural implications of space making

Student Empowerment in Higher Education. Reflecting on Teaching Practice and Learner Engagement Anjoom A. Mukadam ,2020-05-04 Student Empowerment in Higher Education brings together the accumulated knowledge and experience of many accomplished teachers and students from higher education institutions around the world and has much to offer those who are engaged in higher education as students teachers or support staff The authors offer personal reflections in teaching learning mentoring assessment hands on activities course design and student identities in higher education across the globe supported by academic research and scholarship Readers are provided with a window into tried and tested empowering practices in varying contexts enabling them to see what works and what does not alongside the challenges and possibilities A distinctive feature of this book and its paramount strength is that it explores best practices in student empowerment whilst reflecting on matters of teaching and learning that are familiar to students and teachers alike and also explores practices in a variety of disciplines The intention of these volumes therefore is not only to inform readers about the diverse learning and teaching approaches of the authors but most importantly to facilitate processes of student empowerment and promote reflection on teaching and learning practices In recent decades higher education policy discourse has persistently implied that a university education is delivered to students under the impersonal banner of the student experience Not only does this commodify the diverse individual experiences of students into one marketable product it also creates false barriers and power dynamics between students and their teachers In Student Empowerment in Higher Education the students and lecturers who collaborated to write this important volume have literally blown such misleading notions out of the window I highly recommend each varied and autonomous chapter to learn what really inspires confidence and success in university students Professor Sarah Hayes Professor of Higher Education Policy University of Wolverhampton The two volumes of Student Empowerment in Higher Education offer the reader rich and varied examples and understandings of student empowerment from around the world The authors provide reflective accounts of learning and teaching from diverse perspectives and disciplines which focus on many different areas of practice in higher education It is this variety that will appeal to many readers as the source of ideas and inspiration for numerous possible routes to empowerment With many chapters co-authored by students and staff the book models the collective responsibility students and staff have for enhancing student empowerment Dr Catherine Bovill Senior Lecturer in Student Engagement University of Edinburgh Fulbright Scholar Elon University North Carolina USA Visiting Fellow Knowledge Exchange University of Winchester

Virtual Pedophilia Gillian Harkins, 2020-04-10 In Virtual Pedophilia Gillian Harkins traces how by the end of the twentieth century the pedophile as a social outcast evolved into its contemporary appearance as a virtually normal white male The pedophile's alleged racial and gender normativity was treated as an exception to dominant racialized modes of criminal or diagnostic profiling The pedophile was instead profiled as a virtual figure a potential threat made visible only when information was transformed into predictive image The virtual pedophile was everywhere and nowhere slipping through day to day life undetected until people learned how to arm themselves with the right combination of visually predictive information Drawing on television movies and documentaries such as Law and Order SVU To Catch a Predator Mystic River and Capturing the Friedmans Harkins shows how diverse U S audiences have been conscripted and trained to be lay detectives who should always be on the lookout for the pedophile as virtual predator In this way the perceived threat of the pedophile legitimated increased surveillance and ramped up legal strictures that expanded the security apparatus of the carceral state
