A Biscuit, a Casket Liz Mugavero, 2014-04-01 The small town of Frog Ledge Connecticut has wholeheartedly embraced Kristan Stan Connor's new business preparing quality organic treats for dogs and cats. On a healthy diet the animals may live longer but one local farmer won't be so lucky. As Halloween approaches Stan is asked to cater a doggie costume party hosted by the Happy Cow Dairy Farm. Part of a local co-op Happy Cow specializes in organic dairy products and farmers Hal and Emmalee Hoffman have started opening up the farm for parties offering a haunted corn maze as an added attraction. When Hal's lifeless body is found in the maze the police at first suspect his wife but Stan soon learns the dairy farmer had plenty of enemies from bitter family members to shady business associates. If Stan can't extract a kernel of truth from the labyrinth of lies she may be the next one to buy the farm. Film Tags Robert Cettl, 2010-12-12

Improvised Theatre and the Autism Spectrum Gary Kramer, Richie Ploesch, 2021-11-29 This guide provides educators, professionals, and parents with an easy-to-follow and comprehensive approach to utilizing improvised theatre as a tool to teach social and communication skills to individuals on the autism spectrum. Opening with the philosophy of the curriculum and the considerations of mental health, play, and environmental factors on individuals with autism, the book then breaks down specific activities, suggests course sequencing, and explains how each activity works and applies to desired outcomes. Packed with dozens of activities and explanations, the book includes all the information necessary to design a full curriculum or create an at-home learning program for parents. By combining the fun and engaging atmosphere of improvisational theatre with the systematic teaching of social skills, professionals and parents can cultivate learning in a way that keeps students engaged while providing long-lasting improvements in social interaction, self-confidence, and communication.

Make the Night Hideous Pauline Greenhill, 2010-11-06 The charivari is a loud, late-night surprise house-visiting custom from members of a community, usually to a newlywed couple, accompanied by a queue of requests for a treat or money in exchange for the noisy performance and/or pranks. Up to the first decades of the twentieth century, charivaris were for the most part enacted to express disapproval of the relationship that was their focus, such as those between individuals of different ages, races, or religions. While later charivaris maintained the same rituals, their meaning changed to a welcoming of the marriage. Make the Night Hideous explores this mysterious transformation using four detailed case studies from different time periods and locations across English Canada, as well as first-person accounts of more recent charivari participants. Pauline Greenhill's unique and fascinating work explores the
