The Knight And His Shadow African Humanities And The Arts:

The Knight and His Shadow Boubacar Boris Diop, 2015-01-01 A brilliant tour de force The Knight and His Shadow tells the tale of Lat Sukab's quest to find his former lover Khadidja who writes him to come before it's too late As Lat Sukab recounts his past with Khadidja reality shapeshifts and takes on a dreamlike quality He describes how Khadidja is hired by a wealthy stranger to sit before an open door and tell stories into an uncertain darkness unable to see the person to whom she speaks Like Lat Sukab and Khadidja the reader feels farther from home with every page as the world turns and morphs With those shifts the symbolic order the basis of meaning and sanity begins to tremble Postmodernist sensibilities meet postcolonial concerns in this lyrical novel from a master of Senegalese literature Assemblages of Belonging Craniv Boyd, 2025-11-07 Ndebele material culture in South Africa was appropriated and commodified during the apartheid era Craniv Boyd traces Ndebele art back to its origins and examines its creation as enduring practices of identity construction and of cultural articulation placing particular emphasis on mural painting and beadwork He traces the historical trajectories of these art forms and considers their ongoing transformation in contemporary contexts Focusing on the creative labor of Ndebele women this study conceptualizes these practices as assemblages of belonging that mediate personal and collective identity sustain cultural continuity and navigate the shifting dynamics of heritage modernity and global circulation Arts & Humanities Citation Index, 1995 Black Writers Linda Metzger, 1989 Biographical and bibliographical entries on some 400 black authors active in the 20th century Some of the sketches are updated from Gale's Contemporary authors series others were written especially for this volume Covers not only contemporary American authors but also earlier 20th century writers social figures e.g. Malcolm X Desmond Tutu and important African and Caribbean writers In addition to the descriptive personal and career information there are illuminating biographical critical essays including comments often by the authors themselves on personal interests aspirations motivations and thoughts on writing Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR Routledge Handbook of Art, Science, and Technology Studies Hannah Rogers, Megan Halpern, Dehli Hannah, Kathryn de Ridder-Vignone, 2021-12-22 Art and science work is experiencing a dramatic rise coincident with burgeoning Science and Technology Studies STS interest in this area Science has played the role of muse for the arts inspiring imaginative reconfigurations of scientific themes and exploring their cultural resonance Conversely the arts are often deployed in the service of science communication illustration and popularization STS scholars have sought to resist the instrumentalization of the arts by the sciences emphasizing studies of theories and practices across disciplines and the distinctive and complementary contributions of each The manifestation of this commonality of creative and epistemic practices is the emergence of Art Science and Technology Studies ASTS as the interdisciplinary exploration of art science This handbook defines the modes practices crucial literature and research interests of this emerging field It explores the questions methodologies and theoretical implications of scholarship and practice that arise at the intersection of art and STS

Further ASTS demonstrates how the arts are intervening in STS Drawing on methods and concepts derived from STS and allied fields including visual studies performance studies design studies science communication and aesthetics and the knowledge of practicing artists and curators ASTS is predicated on the capacity to see both art and science as constructions of human knowledge making Accordingly it posits a new analytical vernacular enabling new ways of seeing understanding and thinking critically about the world This handbook provides scholars and practitioners already familiar with the themes and tensions of art science with a means of connecting across disciplines It proposes organizing principles for thinking about art science across the sciences social sciences humanities and arts Encounters with art and science become meaningful in relation to practices and materials manifest as perceptual habits background knowledge and cultural norms As the chapters in this handbook demonstrate a variety of STS tools can be brought to bear on art science so that systematic research can be conducted on this unique set of knowledge making practices Africa and the Disciplines Robert H. Bates, V. Y.

Mudimbe, Jean F. O'Barr, 1993-12 African Studies contrary to some accounts is not a separate continent in the world of American higher education Its intellectual borders touch those of economics literature history philosophy and art its history is the story of the world both ancient and modern This is the clear conclusion of Africa and the Disciplines a book that addresses the question Why should Africa be studied in the American university This question was put to distinguished scholars in the social sciences and humanities prominent Africanists who are also leaders in their various disciplines Their responses make a strong and enlightening case for the importance of research on Africa to the academy Paul Collier's essay for example shows how studies of African economies have clarified our understanding of the small open economies and contributed to the theory of repressed inflation and to a number of areas in microeconomics as well Art historian Suzanne Blier uses the terms and concepts that her discipline has applied to Africa to analyze the habits of mind and social practice of her own field Christopher L Miller describes the confounding and enriching impact of Africa on European and American literary theory Political scientist Richard Sklar outlines Africa's contributions to the study of political modernization pluralism and rational choice These essays together with others from scholars in history anthropology philosophy and comparative literature attest to the influence of African research throughout the curriculum For many knowledge from Africa seems distant and exotic These powerful essays suggest the contrary that such knowledge has shaped the way in which scholars in various disciplines understand their worlds Eloquent testimony to Africa's necessary place in the mainstream of American education this book should alter the academy's understanding of the significance of African research its definition of core and periphery in human knowledge These essays are at once exceptionally thoughtful and remarkably comprehensive Not only do they offer an unusually interesting overview of African studies they are also striking for the depth and freshness of their insights This is the sort of volume from which both seasoned regional experts and students stand to learn an enormous amount John Comaroff University of Chicago These essays provide an important perspective on the evolution of African studies and offer insights into what Africa can mean for the different humanistic and social science disciplines Many show in ingenious and subtle ways the enormous potential that the study of Africa has for confounding the main tenets of established fields One could only hope that the strictures expressed here would be taken to heart in the scholarly world Robert L Tignor Princeton University Cornell University Courses of Study Cornell University,2002 The Crisis ,2001-01 The Crisis founded by W E B Du Bois as the official publication of the NAACP is a journal of civil rights history politics and culture and seeks to educate and challenge its readers about issues that continue to plague African Americans and other communities of color For nearly 100 years The Crisis has been the magazine of opinion and thought leaders decision makers peacemakers and justice seekers It has chronicled informed educated entertained and in many instances set the economic political and social agenda for our nation and its multi ethnic citizens Words on Cassette ,1997 School Library Journal ,1990-07 The Illustrated London News ,1845 International Who's Who of Authors and Writers 2004 Europa Publications,2003 Accurate and reliable biographical information essential to anyone interested in the world of literature TheInternational Who s Who of Authors and Writersoffers invaluable information on the personalities and organizations of the literary world including many up and coming writers as well as established names With over 8 000 entries this updated edition features Concise biographical information on novelists authors playwrights columnists journalists editors and critics Biographical details of established writers as well as those who have recently risen to prominence Entries detailing career works published literary awards and prizes membership and contact addresses where available An extensive listing of major international literary awards and prizes and winners of those prizes A directory of major literary organizations and literary agents A listing of members of the American Academy of Arts and Letters Directory of American Scholars ,1982 The Writers Directory ,2013 Supplement to Who's who in America ,1987 Cold War Literature Andrew Hammond,2006-11-22 This collection of essays analyzes the literary response to the coups insurgencies and invasions that took place around the globe during the Cold War and explores the thematic and stylistic trends in world writing prompted by Cold War hostilities Artbibliographies Modern ,1995 Abstracts of journal articles books essays exhibition catalogs dissertations and exhibition reviews The scope of ARTbibliographies Modern extends from artists and movements beginning with Impressionism in the late 19th century up to the most recent works and trends in the late 20th century Photography is covered from its invention in 1839 to the present A particular emphasis is placed upon adding new and lesser known artists and on the coverage of foreign language literature Approximately 13 000 new entries are added each year Published with title LOMA from 1969 1971 Paperbacks ,1960 International Television & Video Almanac ,2006 Index to Educational Videotapes National Information Center for Educational Media,1974
