The Legendary History Of The Cross Illustrated:

The Legendary History of the Cross: A Series of Sixty-four Woodcuts from a Dutch Book Published by Veldener, A.D. 1483
John Ashton,2020-09-28 THE Cross on which our Lord and Saviour suffered would naturally if properly authenticated be an object of the deepest veneration to all Christian men be their creed or shade of opinion what it might but for over 300 years it could not be found and it was reserved for the Empress Helena in her old age for she was 79 years old to discover its place of concealment 1 That this Invention or finding of the Cross was believed in at the time there can be no manner of doubt for it is alluded to by St Cyril Patriarch of Jerusalem A D 350 to 386 and by St Ambrose Rufinus of Aquila a friend of St Jerome in his Ecclesiastical History gives an account of its finding in the following words About the same time Helena the mother of Constantine a woman of incomparable faith whose sincere piety was equalled by her rare munificence warned by celestial visions went to Jerusalem and inquired of the inhabitants where was the place where the Divine Body had been affixed and hung on a gibbet This place was difficult to find for the persecutors of old had raised a statue to Venus 2 in order that the Christians who might wish to adore Christ in that place should appear to address their homage to the goddess and thus it was little frequented and almost forgotten After clearing away the profane objects which defiled it and the rubbish that was there heaped up she found three crosses placed in confusion But the joy which this discovery caused her was tempered by the impossibility of distinguishing to whom each of them had belonged There also was found the title written by Pilate in Greek Latin and Hebrew characters but still there was nothing to indicate sufficiently clearly the Cross of our Lord This uncertainty of man was settled by the testimony of heaven And then follows the story of the dead woman being raised to life took up this intriguing question notably including the Early Christian Latin text the Life of Adam and Eve This account describes the failed attempt of the couple to return to paradise by fasting whilst immersed in a river and explores how they coped with new experiences such as childbirth and death Brian Murdoch guides the reader through the many variant versions of the Life demonstrating how it was also adapted into most western and some eastern European languages in the Middle Ages and beyond constantly developing and changing along the way The study considers this development of the apocryphal texts whilst presenting a fascinating insight into the flourishing medieval tradition of Adam and Eve A tradition that the Reformation would largely curtail stories from the Life were celebrated in European prose verse and drama in many different languages from Irish to Russian Catalogue New South Wales Free Public Library, Sydney,1895 The Magazine of Art ,1887 Saints and Festivals of the Christian Church H.
