The Lighted Way:

The Lighted Way E. Phillips Oppenheim, 2022-09-16 In The Lighted Way E Phillips Oppenheim intricately weaves a tale of mystery and romance set against the backdrop of a world on the cusp of modernity. Written in Oppenheim's characteristic elegant prose, the novel explores themes of ambition, passion, and the ethical dilemmas of its characters. The narrative unfolds with a deft balance of suspense and emotional depth, inviting readers into a vivid tableau that mirrors the complexities of early 20th-century society. Oppenheim's keen observations on the societal norms of his time enrich the plot, making it a thought-provoking exploration of human desires and moral choices. E Phillips Oppenheim was a prolific author and a prominent figure in early 20th-century literature, often dubbed the Prince of Storytellers. His extensive career was marked by a deep engagement with the rapidly changing cultural landscape, including the rise of the middle class and the impact of technological advancements. These experiences informed his writings, leading him to craft engaging narratives that reflect both the allure and the treachery of human nature. For readers who relish richly drawn characters and intricate plots, The Lighted Way is a compelling addition to the literary canon. Oppenheim's work not only captivates but also prompts reflections on the choices that shape our lives, making it an essential read for those keen to explore the transitional period between tradition and modernity.

Backpacking the Light Way Richard A. Light, 2015-09-21 This is not another backpacking gear book. Backpacking the Light Way is for both beginner and advanced backpackers who want to pack more efficiently, carry less weight, still be fully prepared for contingencies, and have more fun in the backcountry. It will benefit instructors and guides by giving them methods to teach their clients, and it will help them refine their risk assessment and trip planning techniques. This book presents field-tested, proven methodologies, including gear organization, modular packing systems, and creating gear lists that work. Assessing conventional gear currently owned and understanding the mindsets of both conventional and ultralight backpacking. Navigating the mindset shift required to seriously lighten up and redefining each gear system to meet your needs. Dealing with winter conditions and packing to minimize frustration. Assessing risk, effective trip planning, and much more.

The Soul: The Quality of Life Alice A. Bailey, 2023-11-01 This compilation from the books of Alice Bailey seeks to increase understanding of the immortal soul, addressing many aspects under sixty-two headings. The creative nature of the Soul. On its own plane, the soul knows no separation, and the factor of synthesis governs all soul relations. The soul is occupied not only with the form that the vision of its objective may take, but with the quality or the meaning which that vision veils or hides. The soul knows the Plan; its form, outline, methods, and objective are known. Through the use of the creative imagination, the soul creates; it builds thought-forms on the mental plane and objectifies desire on the astral plane. It proceeds then to externalise its thought and its desire upon the physical plane through applied force, creatively actuated by the imagination of the etheric or vital vehicle. Yet, because the soul intelligence is motivated by love, it can, within the realised synthesis which governs its activities, analyse, discriminate, and divide. The soul likewise aspires to that which is greater than itself and reaches out to the world of divine ideas and thus itself occupies a midway position between the world of ideation and the world of forms This is its difficulty and its opportunity Charlotte Leaves the Light On Annette Smith,2008-09-01 Here is the third and final book in the Ruby Prairie series about a small town in Texas and the quirky characters who live there Life in Ruby Prairie is seen through the eyes of Charlotte a widow in her mid thirties who has come to the town to open her home and be a foster mother for girls Discipleship in the New Age Vol II Alice A.
