Behold!: The Jesus We Never Knew: God From The Beginning Jeffrey Goodman Ph. D.,Anna a. Goodman,2019-09-26 Who is Jesus This question has been asked countless times over the last 2 000 years and has produced dozens of different answers From theologians priests laymen and even Jesus own disciples and apostles have all struggled with the answer to this question Why did Jesus come Jesus died for the sins of the world and through His atoning death mankind can be reconciled to Holy God This is a basic belief of Christianity But what if it is wrong Behold The Jesus We Never Knew God from the Beginning provides research of the Old Testament scriptures and the Gospels and reveals different answers about why Jesus came and who He is This books answers questions we did not know we had but is vitally important for the Christian to know For instance 1 What does it mean when we call Jesus the Christ or Messiah 2 We know Jesus as the Son of God but what does that mean and how is that possible 3 Where did Jesus grow up and what did He do 4 Is it true that God requires blood atonement to forgive sin 5 Is Jesus God or Man or both and how does the scriptures answer these questions

The Jesus You Never Knew Dr. Henry DePetro, 2012-09-29 In the hearts of all mankind of whatever race or station in life there are inexpressible longings for something they do not now possess This longing is implanted in the very constitution of man by a merciful God that man may not be satisfied with his present conditions or attainments whether bad or good or better God desires that the human shall seek the best and find it to the eternal blessing of his soul Satan by wily scheme and craft has perverted these longings of the human heart He makes men believe that this desire may be satisfied by pleasure by wealth by ease by fame by power but those who have been thus deceived by him and they number myriads find all these things pall upon the sense leaving the soul as barren and unsatisfied as before It is God s design that this longing of the human heart should lead to the One who alone is able to satisfy it The desire is of Him that it may lead to Him the fullness and fulfillment of that desire That fullness is found in Jesus the Christ the Son of the Eternal God For it was the good pleasure of the Father that in Him should all the fullness dwell for in Him dwelleth all the fullness of the Godhead bodily And it is also true that in Him ye are made full with respect to every desire divinely implanted and normally followed Haggai calls Him the Desire of all nations and we may well call Him the Desire of all ages even as He is the King of ages It is the purpose of this book to set forth Jesus Christ as the One in whom every longing may be satisfied There is many a Life of Christ written excellent books large funds of information elaborate essays on chronology and contemporaneous history customs and events with much of the teaching and many glimpses of the many sided life of Jesus of Nazareth Yet it may be truly said The half has never been told It is not however the purpose of this work to set forth a harmony of the Gospels or even to give in strictly chronological order the important events and wonderful lessons of the life of Christ its purpose is to present the love of God as revealed in His Son the divine beauty of life of Christ of which all may partake and not to satisfy the desires of the merely curious nor the questionings of critics But even as the attraction of His own goodness of character Jesus drew His disciples unto himself and his personal presence by His sympathetic touch and feeling in all their infirmities and needs and by his constant association transformed their characters from the earthly to the heavenly from the selfish to the sacrificing from the small hearted ignorance and prejudice to large hearted knowledge and profound love for souls of all nations and races even so it is the purpose of this book so to present the blessed Redeemer as to help the reader to come to Him face to face heart to heart and find in Him even as did the disciples of old Jesus the Mighty One who saves of the uttermost and transforms to His own divine image all of those who come unto God by Him Yet how impossible it is to reveal His life It is like attempting to put upon a canvas the living rainbow into discovered that my son is gay We came to different understandings of what the Bible says on this topic This in no way dented my love for him and in many ways deepened my admiration for his amazing example of Christian discipleship At the same time parts of the church were falling prey not only to division but at times to vitriolic and un Christlike behaviour in response to this topic This book is an exploration of how Christians can live with deep disagreements It is about what is important to a healthy church and society in rapidly changing times when anger and division are the easy and common responses Starting with how Jesus lived the book examines what it means for individuals and for a church to be Christlike What does it mean to say that Jesus was fully human Unless we give this its full weight how can we realistically be expected to follow Him Why did Jesus invite obedience but never coerced it Should the church ever take on the role of a law enforcer Can institutions be Christlike Does a multicultural and diverse society illuminate understanding of the Bible Is there a healthy place for human anger What is truth Is it ideological or is it personal and what are the implications of all of this for politics and civic life in an age of populism It is far too undemanding to seek simply to be right We aren't called to be ideologues we are called to be Christlike Grasping this afresh will help us be good news not only to gay and straight people but to all sides in the growing culture wars and to those weary of religion "I Never Knew You" "To Whom Belongs the Glory" Moreno Dal

Bello, 2016-04-21 Most professing Christians believe that there are two kinds of people the saved and the unsaved or the believer and the unbeliever The Bible actually speaks of three types of people the saved made up of all true believers in God's one true Gospel and those who are not saved who do not believe the Gospel of Christ's Righteousness this latter group is comprised of two sections one of which is made up of those who ended their lives not believing in anything about God or Jesus Christ His Son and the other the third of our groups or sub group if you like is made up of a multitude of religious people who were firmly convinced in their minds that they were Christians that they did believe in God and yet the various gospels they held to were false gospels evidencing the fact that they were all false Christians So we have those who believe those who do not believe and those who believe they believe but believe amiss
