original The Antigonos publishing house specialises in the publication of reprints of historical books We make sure that these works are made available to the public in good condition in order to preserve their cultural heritage The Dead and Other Stories James Joyce, 2014-06-03 That James Joyce's The Dead forms an extraordinary conclusion to his collection Dubliners there can be no doubt But as many have pointed out The Dead may equally well be read as a novella arguably one of the finest novellas ever written The Dead a story of public life as Joyce categorized it was written more than a year after Joyce had finished the other stories in the collection and was meant to redress what he felt was their unnecessary harshness Set on the feast of the epiphany it is a haunting tale of connection and of alienation reflecting in the words of Stanislaus Joyce James's brother and confidant the nostalgic love of a rejected exile The present volume highlights The Dead for readers who wish to focus on that great work in a concise volume and for university courses in which it is not possible to cover all of Dubliners But it also gives a strong sense of how that story is part of a larger whole Stories from each of the other sections of Dubliners have been included and a wide range of background materials is included as well providing a vivid sense of the literary and historical context out of which the work emerged A brave fight, and other stories, by Esmè Stuart Amélie Claire Leroy, 1892 The Cucumber King, and Other Stories Edwin Samuel (Hon.), 1965 never go trekking ... and other stories, Lady Macbeth of Mtsensk And Other Stories Nikolai Leskov, 2015-08-27 Five great stories from one of the most quintessentially Russian of writers Nikolai Leskov In the best of Leskov's stories as in almost no others apart from those of Gogol we can hear the voice of nineteenth century Russia An outsider by birth and instinct Leskov is one of the most undeservedly neglected figures in Russian literature He combined a profoundly religious spirit with a fascination for crime an occasionally lurid imagination and a great love for the Russian vernacular This volume includes five of his greatest stories including the masterful Lady Macbeth of Mtsensk Nikolai Semyonovich Leskov was born in 1831 in Gorokhovo Oryol Province and was orphaned early In 1860 he became a journalist and moved to Petersburg where he published his first story He subsequently wrote a number of folk legends and Christmas tales along with a few anti nihilistic novels which resulted in isolation from the literary circles of his day He died in 1895 David McDuff is a translator of Russian and Nordic literature His translations of nineteenth and twentieth century Russian prose classics including works by Dostoyevsky Tolstoy Bely and Babel are published by Penguin The Yellow Butterfly & Other Stories Ashley Capes, 2017-12-20 Leap into worlds like and unlike our own a creepy restaurant stalks its customers steampunk slaves find a new home in the Australian desert storybook characters come alive to make deals with the Roman God of Sleep and in the future a synthetic society suffers dark consequences of endless augmentation all these stories and more lurk within A collection of short fiction featuring steampunk cyberpunk fantasy and even a little horror The Bookseller, Newsdealer and Stationer, 1898
