

Name.....

In a cozy corner of a friendly garden, lived a small and clever spider named Sammy. Sammy was a master weaver, and he spun the most delicate and intricate webs. He had eight long, hairy legs that helped him move gracefully from one leaf to another.

One sunny morning, as Sammy was busy weaving his web, he noticed a group of curious children playing nearby. They were laughing and chasing each other, but when they spotted Sammy, they became curious about the little spinner.

"Hello, little spider! What are you doing up there?" called out one of the children.

"I'm weaving my web," replied Sammy with a friendly smile. "Would you like to watch?"

The children gathered around, watching in awe as Sammy carefully spun the silk threads into a beautiful circular web. They were amazed at how quickly and skillfully he worked.
