Understanding Korean Film Jieun Kiaer, Loli Kim, 2021-11-03 Film viewing presents a unique situation in which the film viewer is unwittingly placed in the role of a multimodal translator finding themselves entirely responsible for interpreting multifaceted meanings at the mercy of their own semiotic repertoire Yet researchers have made little attempt as they have for literary texts to explain the gap in translation when it comes to multimodality It is no wonder then that in an era of informed consumerism film viewers have been trying to develop their own toolboxes for the tasks that they are faced with when viewing foreign language films by sharing information online This is particularly the case with South Korean film which has drawn the interest of foreign viewers who want to understand these untranslatable meanings and even go as far as learning the Korean language to do so

Understanding Korean Film A Cross Cultural Perspective breaks this long awaited ground by explaining the meaning potential of a selection of common Korean verbal and non verbal expressions in a range of contexts in South Korean film that are often untranslatable for English speaking Western viewers Through the selection of expressions provided in the text readers become familiar with a system that can be extended more generally to understanding expressions in South Korean films Formal analyses are presented in the form of in depth discursive deconstructions of verbal and non verbal expressions within the context of South Korea's Confucian traditions Our case studies thus illustrate in a more systematic way how various meaning potentials can be inferred in particular narrative contexts
