of Part IV of Thus Spoke Zarathustra which many scholars have seen as unimportant by comparison with the first three parts Nietzsche's Zarathustra argues that Part III would not have been a culmination for the work and that Part IV is essential to Nietzsche's project Part IV's allusions to Apuleius' The Golden Ass an ancient Menippean satire suggest that it should be read as a satire in which Zarathustra falls into and recovers from folly It is thus the culminating statement of the point that there is always a discrepancy between the living philosophical insight and any attempt to articulate it
