the martial qualities expected of knights and soldiers They questioned when knights and men at arms could legitimately resort to violence the true nature of courage the importance of mercy and the role of books and scholarly learning in the very practical world of military men Contributors to these discussions included some of the most famous French medieval writers led by Jean Froissart Geoffroi de Charny Philippe de Mazières Honorat Bovet Christine de Pizan Alain Chartier and Antoine de La Sale This interdisciplinary study sets their discussions in context challenging modern romantic assumptions about chivalry and investigating the historical reality of debates about knighthood and warfare in late medieval France
