Elizabeth Jane Howard Artemis Cooper, 2016-09-22 Elizabeth Jane Howard 1923 2014 wrote brilliant novels about what love can do to people but in her own life the lasting relationship she sought so ardently always eluded her She grew up

yearning to be an actress but when that ambition was thwarted by marriage and the war she turned to fiction Her first novel The Beautiful Visit won the John Llewellyn Rhys prize she went on to write fourteen more of which the best loved were the five volumes of The Cazalet Chronicle Following her divorce from her first husband the celebrated naturalist Peter Scott Jane embarked on a string of high profile affairs with Cecil Day Lewis Arthur Koestler and Laurie Lee which turned her into a literary femme fatale Yet the image of a sophisticated woman hid a romantic innocence which clouded her emotional judgement She was nearing the end of a disastrous second marriage when she met Kingsley Amis and for a few years they were a brilliant and glamorous couple until that marriage too disintegrated She settled in Suffolk where she wrote and entertained friends but her turbulent love life was not over yet In her early seventies Jane fell for a conman His unmasking was the final disillusion and inspired one of her most powerful novels Falling Artemis Cooper interviewed Jane several times in Suffolk She also talked extensively to her family friends and contemporaries and had access to all her papers Her biography explores a woman trying to make sense of her life through her writing as well as illuminating the literary world in which she lived The Publishers Weekly ,1994 Confusion Elizabeth Jane Howard,2016-04-26 The women of the Cazalet family carry on while WWII casts its shadow over England as the saga by the award winning author of The Light Years continues In the spring of 1942 after the attacks on Pearl Harbor have pulled America into the war the world reels from the ever increasing atrocities of the conflict And in Sussex at the Cazalet family estate known as Home Place personal tragedies begin to take their toll Polly reacting to the untimely death of her mother flees her comfortable surroundings accompanied her cousin Clary But the bustling life of London proves a test not only for their ability to live on their own but also for their once close relationship Nineteen year old Louise believes she has found the man of her dreams in dashing naval officer Michael Hadleigh After a whirlwind marriage and honeymoon though she begins to realize that being a young wartime bride is not the fairy tale she once presumed it would be With Rupert still missing in action his second wife Zo struggles to maintain hope that her husband will one day return But when a handsome stranger offers her solace she finds herself drawn into an inadvisable but sorely needed affair Confusion beautifully continues the sweeping family epic started in The Light Years and Marking Time examining the struggles passions heartbreaks and joys of three generations Filled with profound reflections on a country torn apart by war and intimate glances into the lives of those left behind this is a must read novel for fans of Downton Abbey and lovers of wartime historical fiction Olderr's Fiction Index ,1990
