Botton, 2021-04-06 From Roxane Gay to Leslie Jamison thirty brilliant writers share their timeless stories about the everlasting magic and occasional misery of living in the Big Apple in a new edition of the classic anthology In the revised edition of this classic collection thirty writers share their own stories of loving and leaving New York capturing the mesmerizing allure the city has always had for writers poets and wandering spirits Their essays often begin as love stories do with the passion of something newly discovered the crush of subway crowds the streets filled with manic energy and the sudden unblinking certainty that this is the only place on Earth where one can become exactly who she is meant to be They also share the grief that comes like a gut punch when the grand metropolis loses its magic and the pressures of New York's frenetic life wear thin for even the most dedicated dwellers As friends move away rents soar and love still remains just out of reach each writer's goodbye is singular and universal just like New York itself Venice Noir (Akashic Noir) Maxim
