The Loneliness On The Net:

Loneliness on the Net Janusz Leon Wiśniewski, 2007 Recent Developments of Fuzzy Matrix Theory and Applications Madhumangal Pal, 2024-05-27 This book provides a comprehensive overview of the development of fuzzy matrix theory from its inception to its current state. It covers various types of fuzzy matrices such as intuitionistic fuzzy matrices, interval valued fuzzy matrices, interval valued intuitionistic fuzzy matrices, bipolar fuzzy matrices, picture fuzzy matrices, neutrosophic fuzzy matrices, multipolar fuzzy matrices, and similar ones. Drawing primarily from the author's research work and collaborations, the book offers a state-of-the-art discussion of these topics. Theoretical concepts are illustrated with examples for clarity, accompanied by figures depicting fuzzy matrices and their variations. Suitable for both beginners and expert researchers, the book offers a wealth of material and includes numerous open problems at the end of almost all chapters to encourage further exploration and investigation.

The Lonelinesses of Modernity Denis Newiak, 2025-01-03 Modernity presents itself as an age of increasing social disintegration, secularization, and rationalization. Urbanization and globalization, individualization, and digitalization make it difficult for communities today. Modernity comes with desirable promises that make it attractive, but it does not come free. Its price is escalating modern loneliness. Denis Newiak tells a cultural history of modernization that from industrialization to the late modern network society produces ever new and harsher experiences of loneliness.

The Academy and Literature, 1905 The Nation and Athenæum, 1915 The Academy, 1905 OPENING THE LIGHT VEIN NETWORK -THE TREE OF ETERNAL LIFE -THE WATER-BORN BODY TRAN KHAC CUONG, 2025-11-16 OPENING THE LIGHT VEIN NETWORK THE TREE OF ETERNAL LIFE THE WATER BORN BODY is a meditative and visionary volume in the TKC VH Diary series. Blending traditional spiritual insight with refined mystical clarity, this book leads the reader into three sacred domains: the awakening of the Light Vein Network, the remembrance of the Eternal Life Tree, and the subtle birth of the Water Born Body. Through poetic reflections and serene inner imagery, the work reveals how light flows through the hidden channels of the soul, how ancient memory stirs within the heart, and how two luminous presences meet in a moment of profound union and recognition. Each chapter invites the reader to slow down, breathe deeper, and reconnect with the quiet radiance that has always lived within. This is not merely a spiritual narrative; it is a gentle guide for transformation, inner healing, and the restoration of one's original clarity. Ideal for readers drawn to contemplative practice, subtle body traditions, consciousness studies, and the timeless search for the soul's true home. A calm, elegant, and deeply human journey into the light within.

EBOOK: Quality of Life and Older People John Bond, Lynne Corner, 2004-09-16 What is quality of life? How should we assess quality of life for older people? What are the personal and external influences on quality of life for older people? Quality of Life and Older People provides a critical approach to the conceptualization and measurement of quality of life in social gerontology and health and social care research. The book re-examines what we mean by quality of life in a post-modern world and examines the impact of continuous personal and social changes on the lives of older people The book explores ideas about quality of life in social gerontological literature and describes the experiences of older people through both their own personal accounts and representations in everyday life popular culture and scientific research In this way the book is unique since it reviews the way that older people talk about their quality of life and how this differs from the ways that younger people researchers and scientists policy makers and professionals discuss it The book draws on a range of behavioural and social science knowledge to present a new way of thinking about and understanding quality of life and older people While the book provides a critique of existing social science theories underpinning conceptions of quality of life it also addresses operational issues for the use of quality of life in social gerontological research Quality of Life and Older People is essential reading for undergraduate and postgraduate students taking courses in gerontology medicine nursing social work and social sciences It is also of interest to social gerontologists and health and social care researchers as well as to those involved in the planning and delivery of services to older adults

Human Rights Discourse in a Global Network Lena Khor,2016-05-13 In her innovative study of human rights discourse Lena Khor takes up the prevailing concern by scholars who charge that the globalization of human rights discourse is becoming yet another form of cultural legal and political imperialism imposed from above by an international human rights regime based in the Global North To counter these charges she argues for a paradigmatic shift away from human rights as a hegemonic immutable and ill defined entity toward one that recognizes human rights as a social construct comprised of language and of language use She proposes a new theoretical framework based on a global discourse network of human rights supporting her model with case studies that examine the words and actions of witnesses to genocide Paul Rusesabagina and humanitarian organizations Doctors Without Borders She also analyzes the language of texts such as Michael Ondaatje's Anil's Ghost Khor's idea of a globally networked structure of human rights discourse enables actors textual and human who tap into or are linked into this rapidly globalizing system of networks to increase their power as speaking subjects and in so doing to influence the range of acceptable meanings and practices of human rights in the cultural sphere Khor's book is a unique and important contribution to the study of human rights in the humanities that revitalizes viable notions of agency and liberatory network power in fields that have been dominated by negative visions of human capacity and moral action The Athenaeum James Silk Buckingham,John Sterling,Frederick Denison Maurice,Henry Stebbing,Charles Wentworth Dilke,Thomas Kibble Hervey,William Hepworth Dixon,Norman Maccoll,Vernon Horace Rendall,John Middleton Murry,1902

The Social Basis of Community Care (Routledge Revivals) Martin Bulmer,2015-06-11 Care for the elderly disabled and mentally ill within and by the community forms a vital part of current social policy Martin Bulmer argues that this policy is inadequately thought out and rests on a series of poorly founded sociological assumptions As a result there is a vacuum at the heart of government's social care policy which is likely to lead to ineffective or deteriorating provision for those in need This book first published in 1987 will be essential reading for all those concerned with the organization and delivery of social care whether as students practitioners or teachers It will be particularly useful for courses dealing with social policy the personal social services and the social context of social work
