The Khoi Leopard:

The Khoi Leopard EJ Benting, 2014-11-07 For most of her young life the fickleness of fate had been cruel to this American woman Hilary is an orphaned college graduate who leaves her few friends behind to seek employment in LA After leaving her first job she finds a job as a PA to a Hollywood couple Hilary realizes even though she had been on a few college dates she really had become reclusive and very lonely Her employers Roger and Liz recognizing her melancholy invite her to accompany them on a holiday trip to Cape Town where Liz's parents live After enjoying the sights and sounds around Cape Town the tourists head out into the hauntingly beautiful Karoo where Hilary befriends a vacationing young man who has an interest in the areas Khoisan rock paintings They spend much time together sightseeing exploring caves kloofing in the mountain streams and socializing with fellow guests on the farm They meet two secretive Chinese oil men who clearly wished to keep to themselves During their excursions into the nearby hills and the Karoo veld Hilary and her friend cross paths with two direct descendants of the Khoisan community that had inhabited the region for many centuries long before the first Europeans set foot in Southern Africa Will the American and her new friend be able to handle an ultra long distance relationship after such a brief holiday romance Will the dangerous Kowloon based mobsters of the BPC succeed in ending their young lives in order to steal the Khoisans ancestral land Remember wherever you find oil fields greedy predators were always watching and calculating risk versus reward

The golden bough; a study in comparative religion James George Frazer, 1900

Intercultural Encounters Wim M. J. van Binsbergen, 2003 This book brings together fifteen essays investigating aspects of interculturality Like its author it operates at the borderline between social anthropology and intercultural philosophy It seeks to make a contribution to intercultural philosophy by formulating with great precision and painful honesty the lessons deriving from extensive intercultural experiences as an anthropologist Its culminating section presents an intercultural philosophy revolving on the tenet cultures do not exist The kaleidoscopic nature of intercultural experiences is reflected in the diversity of these texts Many belong to a field that could be described as meta anthropology others are more clearly philosophical occasionally they spill over into belles lettres ancient history and comparative cultural and religious studies The ethnographic specifics supporting the arguments are diverse deriving from various African situations in which the author has conducted participatory field research Tunisia Zambia Botswana and South Africa

Political Communication in the Anglophone World Theodore F. Sheckels, 2012-10-05 Political Communication in the Anglophone World Case Studies by Theodore F Sheckels extends political communication scholarship primarily rhetorical scholarship into the extensive English language arena outside the United States and the United Kingdom While wrestling with the extent to which insights derived from and approaches used in political communication research focused on the United States can be used in other nations with different government structures different media operations and different political cultures Sheckels provides insight into a variety of political communication topics ranging from the role gender plays in campaign politics to the politics involved as one speaks upon the occasion of leaving high office This book explores how Canadian Prime Minister Pierre Elliott Trudeau used moments of media attention to push his foreign and domestic policy agenda as well as another Canadian Prime Minister Kim Campbell and the difficulties she faced because of her gender Sheckels also examines Jamaica s Michael Manley and his shift from advocating socialism to later supporting free markets and reggae artist Bob Marley and his musical shift from concern for Kingston s poor to embracing pan Africanism Popular media images of Africa are also considered as the book investigates Mwai Kibaki s attempts to unify Kenya Nelson Mandela s presidential rhetoric and Thabo Mbeki s I am an African Address Finally Sheckels goes to Australia to consider Gough Whitlam s unprecedented dismissal as prime minister and Kevin Rudd s farewell speech after being replaced by his own party members Asking new questions and using novel rhetorical approaches Political Communication in the Anglophone World illuminates how communication proceeds whether the medium be speech song website or pirouette

Embracing the Tune of Appearance: An Emotional Symphony within The Khoi Leopard

In some sort of eaten by screens and the ceaseless chatter of immediate conversation, the melodic splendor and mental symphony developed by the prepared word often diminish into the backdrop, eclipsed by the relentless sound and disruptions that permeate our lives. But, situated within the pages of The Khoi Leopard an enchanting fictional value full of raw thoughts, lies an immersive symphony waiting to be embraced. Constructed by an outstanding composer of language, that charming masterpiece conducts visitors on a mental journey, skillfully unraveling the hidden songs and profound affect resonating within each carefully constructed phrase.
