The Light Fantastic Discworld 2 Terry Pratchett:

The Light Fantastic Terry Pratchett, 2000-02-02 Rincewind a cowardly wizard is the only one who can save Discworld as it falls slowly towards a red star

The Light Fantastic Terry Pratchett, 2000-02-02 Terry Pratchett's profoundly irreverent novels are consistent number one bestsellers in England where they have garnered him a revered position in the halls of parody next to Mark Twain Kurt Vonnegut Douglas Adams and Carl Hiaasen In The Light Fantastic only one individual can save the world from a disastrous collision Unfortunately the hero happens to be the singularly inept wizard Rincewind who was last seen falling off the edge of the world

The Light Fantastic Terry Pratchett, 2022-09-27 Incredibly funny compulsively readable The Times The Discworld is very much like our own if our own were to consist of a flat planet balanced on the back of four elephants which stand on the back of a giant turtle that is What shall we do said Twoflower Panic said Rincewind hopefully He always held that panic was the best means of survival As it moves towards a seemingly inevitable collision with a malevolent red star the Discworld could do with a hero What it doesn't need is a singularly inept and cowardly wizard still recovering from the trauma of falling off the edge of the world or a well meaning tourist and his luggage which has a mind and legs of its own Which is a shame because that's all there is _____ The Discworld novels can be read in any order but The Light Fantastic is the second book in the Wizards series

The Light Fantastic Terry Pratchett, 1995-11 It's just one of those days when nothing seems to go right a most inopportune time for the first tourist ever to set foot and carnivorous Luggage on the Discworld to be extending his already eventful vacation Not that he currently has much choice in the matter But with a monstrous red star on a direct collision course the future for the residents of this flat planet carried by four elephants riding on the shell of a giant turtle swimming through space appears uncertain at best Fortunately there is one individual who can save Discworld from total destruction Unfortunately that hero happens to be the singularly inept wizard Rincewind who was last seen falling off the edge of the world

The Science Of Discworld Terry Pratchett, Ian Stewart, Jack Cohen, 2013-04-11 The fantastic first book in the

Sunday Times bestselling Science of Discworld series When a wizardly experiment goes adrift the wizards of Unseen University find themselves with a pocket universe on their hands Roundworld where neither magic nor common sense seems to stand a chance against logic The Universe of course is our own And Roundworld is Earth As the wizards watch their accidental creation grow we follow the story of our universe from the primal singularity of the Big Bang to the internet and beyond Through this original Terry Pratchett story with intervening chapters from Cohen and Stewart we discover how puny and insignificant individual lives are against a cosmic backdrop of creation and disaster Yet paradoxically we see how the richness of a universe based on rules has led to a complex world and at least one species that tried to get a grip of what was going on Terry Pratchett is the acclaimed creator of the global bestselling Discworld series the first of which The Colour of Magic was published in 1983 Raising Steam is his fortieth Discworld novel His books have been widely adapted for stage and screen and he is the winner of multiple prizes including the Carnegie Medal as well as being awarded a knighthood for services to literature After falling out with his keyboard he now talks to his computer Occasionally these days it answers back www.terrypratchett.co.uk terryandrob Professor Ian Stewart is the author of many popular science books He is the mathematics consultant for New Scientist and a Professor of Mathematics at the University of Warwick He was awarded the Michael Faraday Prize for furthering the public understanding of science and in 2001 became a Fellow of the Royal Society Dr Jack Cohen is an internationally known reproductive biologist and lives in Newent Gloucestershire Jack has a laboratory in his kitchen helps couples get pregnant by referring them to colleagues invents biologically realistic aliens for science fiction writers and in his spare time throws boomerangs Jack who has more letters to his name than can be repeated here writes lectures talks and campaigns to promote public awareness of science particularly biology He is mostly retired that articulate visions of a biocentric ecological civilization Fantasy and myth have long been humanity's most advanced technologies for collective dreaming Today they are helping us adopt a biocentric lens re-kin us with other forms of life and assist us in the transition to an ecological civilization Deliberately moving away from dystopian narratives toward anticipatory imaginations of sustainable futures this volume blends chapters by top scholars in the fields of fantasy myth and Young Adult literature with personal reflections by award-winning authors and illustrators of books for young audiences including Shaun Tan Jane Yolen Katherine Applegate and Joseph Bruchac Chapters cover the works of major fantasy authors such as J.R.R. Tolkien Terry Pratchett J.K. Rowling China Miéville Barbara Henderson Jeanette Winterson John Crowley Richard Powers George R.R. Martin and Kim Stanley Robinson They range through narratives set in the UK USA Nigeria Ghana Pacific Islands New Zealand and Australia Across the chapters fantasy and myth are framed as spaces where visions of sustainable futures can be designed with most detail and nuance Rather than merely criticizing the ecocidal status quo the book asks how mythic narratives and fantastic stories can mobilize resistance around ideas necessary for the emergence of an ecological civilization

Gendered Magic Anna Köhler, 2025-10-20 At the surface fantastic storyworlds appear free of the constraints of reality yet for all their limitless potential most popular fantasy texts still cling to patriarchal representations of gender Drawing on the cognitive framework of Cultural Models Theory CMT this book examines the reasons behind this phenomenon by analyzing the intersection between gender and magic in four contemporary fantasy series J.K. Rowling's Harry Potter Terry Pratchett's Discworld novels Robin Hobb's Farseer trilogy and Jonathan Stroud's Bartimaeus trilogy Magic as a core manifestation of the impossible that sets fantasy apart from other genres serves as the focal point for an exploration of the strategies by which fantasy engages with gender issues on its own terms Showcasing the potential of CMT as a tool for literary analysis and more specifically as a framework through which to understand both gender and genre this book provides new insights into how readers make sense of fantastic storyworlds and the anchoring role that gender models play in that process Overall this analysis demonstrates how CMT can improve our understanding of the interplay of author reader text and cultural context and the significant role of human cognition therein
