The Unresolvable Plot Elizabeth Dipple, 2019-10-01 Originally published in 1988 the last few decades had seen the appearance of some brilliant and complex new kinds of fiction The ambitious experiments of writers such as Greene Garcia M rquez Borges Nabokov Calvino Beckett Eco Spark Hoban Murdoch Bellow Ozick and Lessing among others had all proved the vitality of contemporary fiction in discovering exciting new forms and styles Yet because of the difficulty of many of the texts contemporary fiction as a genre had acquired an undeservedly unpopular reputation among students and other readers In a very real way the reader had become nervous rather than confident in the face of a literature that in fact is more aware of and generous to that reader than earlier and more apparently accessible literature ever managed to be And the new fiction's seeming remoteness from the reader is exaggerated in a sense by the critical academic response at the time which tended to obscure the texts themselves behind the many aesthetic and cultural theories which had sprung up in the study of fictionalizing or narrativity in general Elizabeth Dipple is anxious to dispel readers fears about these texts She has chosen an international list of major writers of the time and presents a detailed discussion of each Beginning each chapter with a brief explanation of the context in which each fictionist is to be examined she then concentrates on an analysis of key texts aiming always to look beyond jargon and theory back to the sources themselves Professor Dipple s purpose was to convey to the reader some of her own admiration and enthusiasm for contemporary fiction and to persuade him or her to take a fresh look at a group of writers who were producing what she felt would surely be seen by future generations as among the most sophisticated and accomplished fiction of our time John Hawkes' The Lime Twig Kenneth D. Lucas,1971 Speaking for Animals Margo DeMello,2013 This text contributes to the growing field of human animal studies by examining the human impulse evidenced inblogs social networking sites video games comic books and animal welfare literature to ventriloquize the animal voice Whistlejacket John Hawkes,1997 While investigating his mentor s life and death Michael a voyeuristic fashion photographer travels through a Dionysian landscape where sex is daydream women and horses share the same erotic power and perversity is the rule In his search Michael uses photographs and paintings to visualize the past and thereby expose a family s decadent legacy of sex lies and betrayal The Lime Twig, Etc John Hawkes,1962 Twentieth Century Fiction George Woodcock,1983-04-01
