The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church, 2018-07-12 Originally published in 1915 this work is in conformity with the Decrees in place for the Little Office before Vatican II which is the Traditional Little Office The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin is one of the liturgical prayers of the Church and she imposes it on many of her children Although the Little Office of Our Lady is considerably shorter than the ever varying Office which the Clergy and Religious in solemn vows have to say yet coming as it does from the same authority it is as much a liturgical prayer as the Divine Office and has the same claims to be considered a part of the official worship which the mystical Spouse of Christ the Church daily offers to her Divine Head Prayer is the great duty of man here below We ought always to pray and not to faint Luke xviii I We appear before God under three different aspects as individuals as members of congregations or societies and as members of a Divine Society Hence there are three kinds of prayer 1 private prayer 2 prayer in common and 3 the prayer of the Church or liturgical prayer Of the first kind private prayer Our Lord spoke when He said But thou when thou shalt pray enter into thy chamber and having shut the door pray to thy Father in secret and thy Father who seeth in secret will repay thee Matt vi 6

The second kind prayer in common is that which we offer as members of congregations or societies The prayers said by the members of a family such as morning and night prayers the prayers said together by the members of a congregation or a community are better than individual prayers Our Lord praised this kind of prayer when He said If two of you shall consent upon earth concerning anything whatsoever they shall ask it shall be done to them by My Father who is in heaven For where there are two or three gathered together in My Name there am I in the midst of them Matt xviii 19 20 The third kind liturgical prayer is much more pleasing to God it excels both private prayer and prayer in common It is the prayer we offer as members of a Divine Society the Holy Church The public prayer of the Church may be looked upon as the public act of the whole body of the Church Those who by their Rule approved by the Church are charged with saying the Office whether it be the Divine Office or the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin say it as public officers of the Church who officially stand before the throne of God and make intercession for the whole body of Christ s Church When performing this duty even when alone they cease to be private individuals they are invested with the public character of ambassadors to the heavenly Court But an ambassador s personal merit is of very secondary concern What does matter is the dignity and power of him who sent the ambassador and whom he represents Those who take part in this public Office do not stand before God in their own name nor yet in the name of the faithful assembled but in the name of the Holy Church appointed by God Her service and prayer do not partake of the worth and devotion of the angels but of the worth of the mystical body of Christ This prayer of the Church is the most excellent of prayers Private prayer and prayer in common are doubtless very good and highly pleasing to God but they are human prayers necessarily defective made and said by men who are sinners and not always altogether pleasing to God

Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary John E. Rotelle, 2019-03-15 The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary contains the revised edition approved by the Sacred Congregation for Divine Worship and the United States Bishops Committee on the Liturgy With readable type this unique book contains a wealth of Marian themes and texts in a format patterned after the Liturgy of the Hours Printed in two colors and bound in beautiful blue Dura Lux the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary is an indispensable resource for all who wish to honor Mary in a way that harmonizes with the liturgy

The Hours of Our Lady (Annotated) Jim Garlits, 2019-10-11 Many Catholics desire to deepen their prayer lives and those devoted to Our Lady have a beautiful outlet in the Rosary But are you aware of the other great Marian prayer Since at least the eighth century the Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary has helped the faithful to consecrate the day with prayers psalms and hymns of great beauty Others who have investigated reciting the Liturgy of the Hours but found its length and depth intimidating will find refreshment in these brief hours It is a primer in the art of praying without ceasing and the simple structure of the hours lends a deeper understanding over time of the importance of posture gesture and attitude when praying This volume is unique in several ways The text is heavily annotated with the rubrics instructions on how the hours are prayed Since it structured as a liturgy whether prayed liturgically or not it has a set structure and flow Other editions of the Little Office give the prayers anthems hymns and verses in their proper order but gives the reader no idea of how it looks when prayed in community With this volume you will know from the first page what to do These hours can be prayed by an individual by two or three gathered in prayer or by a larger group of people Once you have prayed it a few times and learned the hymns and antiphons there are only eight you will be eager to invite others to join you The four hymns are new arrangements which can be sung in English or Latin since the meter is the same the four Marian anthems can be chanted in Latin or sung to the hymn tunes Whether you only pray the principal hours Matins Lauds and Vespers or one of them or all seven your prayer life will be enriched for your effort

Living the Little Office Marianna Gildea, 2010-01-01 Originally published by College Misericordia Second printing August 1955 T p verso Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary, 1916 The Little Office of the Blessed Virgin Mary Catholic Church, 1931 Our Lady's Office Catholic Church, Charles Jerome Callan, John Ambrose McHugh, 1928 The Little Office of Our Lady Ethelred L. Taunton, Brother Hermenegild, 2013-04-25 Part of the Sabbatine Privilege is for those who can read to recite daily the Little Office of Our Lady And yet this recitation can be dry as dust without a proper understanding of these holy prayers Although this book has been written primarily for the use of religious I have borne in mind the wants of that everincreasing number of the laity who prefer to find their devotion in the Church s prayers where all is staid and sober and short rather than in the utterances of private individuals which are often the reverse In days gone by the Little Office in English was the favourite devotion of our Catholic forefathers Happy for England when our prayers once more take such forms and we build our spiritual life on the simple direct spirit of Holy Mother Church instead of 011 those so called devotions which the late saintly Cardinal Manning was wont to count as some of the greatest evils of the Church to day As to the book itself I have divided the treatise into three parts In the THEORETICAL part I inquire into the nature and excellence of Liturgical Prayer and then discuss the materials which compose the Little Office lastly I give an historical account of the growth and development of the Prayer as we have it to day In the PRACTICAL part I consider the best means of saying the Office with fruit and according to the mind of the Church and I also make various suggestions to this end and treat of some difficulties The EXEGETICAL part consists of a full and complete Commentary drawn from the Fathers and great mystical writers on every verse of the Psalms together with a full explanation of the hymns lessons responsories

antiphons versicles and prayers To this is added by way of Appendix a Ceremonial and the latest decrees of the Sacred Congregation of Rites upon the subject As to the use to be made of this book It is not intended to be read through once and then laid aside as a mere book of reference But as the Office is a daily work so should this treatise be made a daily handbook for reading and studying now one part and then another I recommend that first of all the book be read through in order to grasp the general subject Then that portions of the Third Part be studied daily On retreat days the First and Second Parts may be read with advantage Again a verse of a Psalm with its commentary may be usefully taken as the subject of mental prayer and the lights which are gained during the recitation will prove abundant food for this time And for spiritual reading slow and thoughtful what can be better than a commentary on the Psalms for here we have the Holy Ghost speaking to us directly in the words of the Scripture i and His saints explaining them to us The main point I want to arrive at with those who use this book is the value of the Public Prayer above all private prayer and the consequent necessity of making a deliberate study thereof
