Short Courses At Unisa:

The Dynamics of Changing Higher Education in the Global South Busani Mpofo, Sabelo

Ndlovu-Gatsheni, 2020-06-29 Today there are generally universities in Africa rather than African universities. The legitimacy of the university in Africa is under serious questions now because of its complicity in racism, patriarchy, sexism, colonialism, capitalism, genocide, epistemicide, linguicide, culturecide, and alienation. In other words, the university in Africa as we know it today is elitist and exclusionary. Therefore, rethinking the idea of the university is fundamental to overcoming its current deficiencies in the Global South. This volume bringing together a number of national case studies and macro analyses on the dynamics of changing higher education in the Global South gestures towards the desired imagined decolonial African university which should be a site of multilingualism where African indigenous languages, cosmologies, and ontologies become a central part of its identity and soul, intolerant of epistemicides, linguicides, and cultural imperialism but a site of cognitive and social justice that fully embraces the idea that all human beings are born into valid, useful, relevant, and legitimate knowledge systems.

The World Guide to CSR Wayne Visser, Nick Tolhurst, 2017-09-08 The World Guide to CSR is the first book to provide comparable national profiles that describe the evolution and practice of Corporate Sustainability and Responsibility (CSR) for 58 countries and 5 global regions. Each regional and national profile includes key information about the relevant CSR history, country-specific issues, trends, research, and leading organizations. The purpose of the book is to give CSR professionals, including managers, consultants, academics, and NGOs, focusing on the social, environmental, and ethical responsibilities of business, a quick reference guide to CSR in different regional and national contexts. The need for the book is premised on the fact that CSR professionals and researchers more often than not have a multinational remit and are required to benchmark performance internationally but find that country-specific CSR information is ad hoc, limited, or non-existent. Even where national CSR research exists, it is often hidden in academic journals that practitioners cannot access or do not have the time or inclination to read. The book is an edited volume with expert contributors from around the world, all of whom have been screened and selected on the basis of their qualifications and experience in CSR. Each regional country profile includes the following subsections: CSR in context, Priority issues, Trends, Legislation and codes, Organizations, Case studies, Educational institutions, References. This unique resource will be an essential acquisition for all organisations who need to benchmark their CSR strategies throughout different regions and cultures and want the best possible intelligence on the key issues and concerns relating to corporate social responsibility in all of the markets in which they operate.
