Dear Diary,

I woke up on the Monday morning and mum and dad had to go and help in the war so Alexander and I had to evacuate. My Teacher Mrs Stewart came and picked us up and took us both to Lawmuir P.S.

When we had arrived at the school we all had to line up in the assembly hall. Lots of people from all over to choose children to go live with until their parents arrive back home from the war.

I thought to myself we were never going to be chosen or if we did we would have been split up as I am 7 years older than my little brother.

So after some time there was only Alex and I left. There was only one adult left in the room who was Mrs Stewart. So she decided to take me and my brother home with her to live in Aberfeldy.

Life at home with Mrs Stewart was great, she is so funny and really kind and generous she continued to teach me all I needed to know through school and lifestyle at home. But I cannot wait till my mum and dad arrive back so I can be at my own home again.

All My Love Hollie xx
