Bureaucratic Thought of the Day Shane Henry Derby, 2010-02-17 The bureaucratic thought of the day began just before Thanksgiving 2008 I attended early morning meetings in a San Diego shipyard while my ship was undergoing maintenance and repairs A fellow officer and

I would exchange friendly morning jokes and gestures in preparation to endure the unknown in which anyone stationed onboard a U S Navy Warship would understand Anyone familiar with bureaucracy and irrational decisions that can result from the big wheel of government or any large company for that matter can relate to the perspective of each daily quote The structure of each daily quote is intended to be the thoughts of a supervisor or subordinate The quote is designed to assign words to a supervisor or executive s demeanor From the subordinate perspective the quote may be what he or she wish could be said for what comes to mind when poor leadership or example is observed The quote may be designed to put words in the boss mouth as well all in good humor Anyone on the receiving end of orders and responsible for carrying them out will be able to relate to this type of humor Although you may find some of the quotes poignant and cynical the goal is only to capture the humor or redundancy in our American behavior when interacting in the work place or participating in a larger group hierarchy The bureaucracy onboard a U S Navy Warship is probably small in comparison to the larger Navy Department of Defense or Civilian Corporation From my fellow officers and me we hope you enjoy our subtle humor and pretentious jokes we communicate through the Bureaucratic Thought of the Day I hope it makes you smile before you begin your day at the office or worksite don t worry there are many serious thoughts of the day embedded as well to include weekend inspirational thoughts so don t forget to read the weekends thought before you leave the office or worksite on Friday

Harvey,Teresa Heinz Housel,2011-10-11 From the Editor The population of first generation college students FGS is increasing in an ever tightening economy a time when employers demand a college degree even for an initial interview According to a 2007 study by UCLA s Higher Education Research Institute nearly one in six freshmen at American four year institutions is firstgeneration However FGS often straddle different cultures between school and home and many feel socially ethnically academically and emotionally marginalized on campus Because of these disparities FGS frequently encounter barriers to academic success and require additional campus support resources Some institutions offer increased financial aid and loan free aid packages to FGS but these remedies although welcome do not fully address the diverse and complex challenges that these students experience Responding to these complexities this volume s chapters extend previous research by examining the multiple transitions experienced by both undergraduate and graduate FGS This volume s cuttingedge research will help college and university administrators faculty and staff work better with FGS through more effective pedagogy and institutional programs Ultimately this volume affirms how learning communities are strengthened when they include diverse student populations such as FGS and meet their particular emotional academic and financial needs

The Reality of My Life Mark Benoit,2012-02 The reason why I wrote The Reality Of My Life is to explain to the world what I went through as a should and how impossible it seem during my growth and development for me to achieve my success educationally I often wondered why I should go through all these pains as a child and why was I so despised by my
