

Persuasive Speech

Specific Purpose: To persuade my audience to use domestic products.

Central Idea: We should use Thai brand products because they help improve our economy, provide jobs to local people, encourage the use of Thai wisdom, and they have high quality, great design, and reasonable price.

Do you have any products that made in Thailand? If you have at least one, I think it's great because you already support Thai brands. Many people think that products that made in Thailand usually lack of quality and not in trend. Sometimes Thai people stick with international brand name products too much. I want you to reconsider about Thai brand products. Today I will talk about the benefits of using Thai brand products. So, let's find out why you should using Thai brand products.

First of all, Thai brand products can help improve our economy. We can see the statistic from the Information and Communication Technology Center, by the cooperation of The Customs Department. This statistic shows the number of top ten export markets of Thailand in year 2003 to 2006. We can see that the export numbers increasing continuously every year.

Futhermore, Thai brand products can provide jobs to local people. We can see from the introducing of the OTOP project or One Tambon One Product project, or in Thai we call “หนึ่งตำบลหนึ่งผลิตภัณฑ์”. This project is a Thai Government initiative to identify and promote unique handmade products made by village communities or “tambons” for sale in the domestic and especially the export markets as a means of improving incomes at the grassroots level.

The OTOP products are handmade creations from thousands of village communities all over the country, typically handicrafts, cotton and silk clothing, pottery, fashionable accessories and many other articles unique to each community.

Moreover, Thai brand products encourage the use of Thai wisdom. Thai wisdom means the body of knowledge, abilities, and skills of Thai people accumulated through many years of experience, learning, development, and transmission from generation to generation. It has helped solving the problems and contributed to the development of our people's way of life in accordance with the changing time and environment.

Now, let's look at the example of the use of Thai wisdom.

Firstly, the Benjarong, benjarong is the name given to tableware using five colours: black, red, white, green and yellow. First created in the Ayuthaya period, it remains popular because it has retained its unique Thai character, grace and delicacy. Its production requires not just artistic ability but dedication and technical skills — clay preparation, shaping, moulding, baking, glazing, painting and colouring. Nowadays more than five colours are employed.

The Simple 6: A Writing Rubric for Kids Kay Davidson, 2009 The Upper Elementary Years Christine Finnan, 2008-10-29 This book reminds me that I became a fifth grade teacher because that time in a child's life is amazing and critical. This book should be required reading for every teacher, especially ones going into the upper elementary grade levels. Tracy Pinnell, Fifth Grade Teacher, Sheppard Accelerated Elementary School, Santa Rosa, CA. Help your upper elementary school students thrive and achieve. A positive educational experience in the upper elementary years sets the stage for a child's long-term success in school. With increased testing and accountability requirements, upper elementary teachers are challenged to help students master required content while responding to each child's unique needs and way of learning. This inspiring book presents a child-centered teaching approach for Grades 3-6, one that helps build students' sense of confidence, belonging, and accomplishment. Written by a passionate advocate for upper elementary students, this guide offers teachers detailed information about child development and effective teaching practices uniquely targeted for 8 to 12 year olds. Readers will find a thorough look at how upper elementary children develop as learners based on comprehensive research. Teaching strategies and assessment techniques to help students master upper elementary curriculum. A discussion of diversity issues including race and ethnicity, gender, socioeconomic background, language, and exceptionalities. Informative case studies and firsthand insights from students, teachers, and administrators. Gain the knowledge you need to grow professionally and serve your upper elementary students more effectively. Rethinking Globalization Bill Bigelow, Bob Peterson, 2002. Rethinking Globalization offers an extensive collection of readings and source material on critical global issues. Building STEM Skills Through Environmental Education Schroth, Stephen T., Daniels, Janese, 2020-09-18. Environmental studies provide an ideal opportunity for children of any age to build critical and creative thinking skills while also building skills in science, technology, engineering, and mathematics. STEM Exploring issues related to sustainability and environmental concerns permits learners to identify problems, develop research questions, gather and analyze data, develop possible solutions, and disseminate this information to others. Despite the advantages of green education and its ability to improve student achievement, there is a gap in understanding the interplay between curriculum and instruction and how this affects teaching and learning. Building STEM Skills Through Environmental Education is an essential publication that addresses gaps in the understanding of green education and offers educators meaningful and comprehensive examples of environmental and sustainability education in the Pre-K through secondary grade levels. The book offers a unique combination of foundational understanding of green education and chapters that illustrate the principles and impact of green education across grade levels, content areas, assessment systems, instructional strategies, technology, and other related topics. It is ideally designed for educators, curriculum developers, instructional designers, advocates, policymakers, researchers, academicians, and students. Language Arts Karen D'Angelo Bromley, 1992 SCC library has 1949 94 ceased publication Basic Speech DeVito, 1998-12 Daily Life in Rome Rogan Fish, The foundation of Roman society was built upon a complex hierarchy that influenced daily life social interactions and political structures At its core the Roman family served as the most fundamental unit shaping personal identity social standing and economic stability The paterfamilias or male head of the household wielded significant authority over his family including his wife children and even enslaved individuals Roman families emphasized duty tradition and respect for elders with ancestral lineage playing a crucial role in societal reputation Women while largely confined to domestic roles could exert influence within the household and in some cases in business affairs Marriage alliances were also instrumental in forging political and social ties reinforcing the interconnected nature of Roman society Beyond the family Roman society was stratified into distinct classes each with its own privileges and restrictions At the top were the patricians an elite group of aristocratic families who traditionally held political power Their wealth and influence allowed them to dominate the Senate and other governing bodies Below them were the plebeians a broad class of commoners that included farmers artisans and merchants Although they had fewer political rights in the early Republic the plebeians gradually gained influence through social and political struggles such as the Conflict of the Orders The lowest tier of society consisted of enslaved individuals and freedmen Slaves were often prisoners of war or those born into servitude playing essential roles in both households and large scale economic activities Freedmen formerly enslaved individuals who had gained their freedom occupied an intermediate status often working as skilled laborers or entrepreneurs while still facing social limitations
