In a forest, there was a group of animals who lived together. One day, they organized a talent show to exhibit their distinct abilities. Eager to witness their friends' talents, the animals gathered around a large tree.

The first animal to showcase its talent was a squirrel who climbed the tree and sang a beautiful song. "Wow, that was amazing!" exclaimed the rabbit.

"I completely agree," said the fox. "The squirrel's voice is so melodious that it feels like listening to a symphony."

Just then, a bird flew onto a branch and chirped a tune. "Hey, that's pretty good too," said rabbit.

However, fox disagreed. "It's not as good as squirrel's singing. It's just chirping."

Bird overheard fox's comment and felt sad. "I worked very hard on my song," he said. "I don't think it's fair to compare me to squirrel like that."

Thankfully, the wise owl then spoke up and reminded the group that they should appreciate everyone's talents, regardless of how they compared to each other. "After all," said the owl, "we're all unique and special in our own ways."

The animals listened to the owl's words and agreed to enjoy the rest of the talent show without making any comparisons between the performances.
